Candidates' Names Won't Be Rotated

Attorney General Rules On Voting Machine Listings

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas F. Eagleton ruled today candidates' names cannot be rotated on voting machines in primary elections.

The result is, he said, the four Missouri election boards using voting machines may have to spend some $650,000 to adapt their 2,964 machines so all candidates may be listed in one column in the order of their filing.

Since the boards may not have the funds to buy the new equipment immediately, he suggested they may have to return to the use of paper ballots in the 1963 primary.

"No board relishes this possibility," Eagleton commented, "bearing in mind the reasons behind the adoption of voting machines in the first place. However, no board would want to hazard the risk of conducting an illegal election."

Besides holding flatly that primary candidates' names cannot be rotated, Eagleton also held the St. Louis County Election Board cannot set a time to open candidate filings and cannot determine their position on the machines by lot.

Eagleton reported he held a meeting in St. Louis several weeks ago to discuss the rotation and other voting machine problems with the election boards of St. Louis City, St. Louis County, Kansas City and Jackson County. Representatives of the Shoup Voting Machine Corp. also attended.

He said only one state using voting machines, Ohio, rotates candidates' names and the result there has been "a tremendously costly business" and "an almost unmanageable mess."

"All of the election officials and those who designed and sell the voting machines were unanimously opposed to the rotation system either as used in Ohio or otherwise," Eagleton said.

Instead, the attorney general held candidates' names must be listed in the order of their filing in one column. He said experience has shown this results in little disadvantage to candidates.

Ike, Mamie Begin Desert Vacation

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower arrived today to begin a desert vacation and said he will stay "until the snow is gone in Pennsylvania."

Eisenhower's train, delayed by bad weather, reached San Bernardino almost an hour late. The former president's private car was moved to a siding and he and his party planned to have breakfast aboard before motoring to Palm Desert, about 50 miles to the southeast.

There he will stay in a rented six-room home facing the 11th fairway of the golf course at Eldorado Country Club. The ex-president has vacationed in that area often since 1954.

With him were his wife, Mamie, and their 6-year-old granddaughter, Mary Jean.

Eisenhower was scheduled to hold a news conference at his vacation home late today.

Temperatures in the 70s were forecast for Palm Desert today.

Hot and Cold War Scenes At a Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Main events concerning cold and hot wars on this first day of winter in the Northern Hemisphere, the first day of summer in the Southern:

LEOPOLDVILLE — Katanga President Moise Tshombe agreed in a conference with Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula to end his wealthy province's secession. But is the agreement airtight? Tshombe said it's subject to approval by his supporters in U.N.-occupied Elisabethville. A U.N. spokesman declared: "As far as we are concerned, it is signed, sealed and delivered."

HAMILTON — A Bermuda summit conference gave President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan — who have their own differences about the U.N. use of force in Katanga — a chance to talk over and solidify policies on a full range of world problems, particularly West Berlin.

MIAMI — Without solid confirmation elsewhere, an exiled Cuban veteran said rebel guerrillas are involved in bloody fighting against 25,000 of Fidel Castro's troops in the mountains of central Cuba. The Havana radio ridiculed the statement, made by Maj. Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo, Cuban exile leader in Washington said there have been signs of minor clashes, but they had no word of a major action.

BOMBAY — Indian army engineers worked to clear road mines and restore transport and communications in Goa, Damao and Diu. In New York, Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon told newsmen he had expected the United Nations to be jubilant about India's seizure of the Portuguese enclaves because, as more colonies go out, the stronger the U.N. becomes. An Indian spokesman said 20 or 25 persons may have been killed on each side.

Respiratory Ailments Still On an Upswing

ST. LOUIS (AP) — An outbreak of respiratory ailments that has forced an early holiday closing of some schools still appears to be on the upswing in the St. Louis area.

Absenteeism in area schools was even higher than last week, ranging up to 44 per cent in elementary schools and 29 per cent in high schools in the city Wednesday.

Three Cops Arrested, Quit Jobs

Under Suspicion Of Petty Theft After Lie Tests

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Three St. Louis policemen resigned today after they had been arrested and booked suspected of petty thefts during the course of burglary investigations.

The accused officers are Patrolman Denver D. Jackson, 28, of the canine corps, and Patrolman Fred E. Heidorn, 49, and Probationary Patrolman Ronald D. McKenzie, 23, both of the Lucas Avenue Police District.

Police officials said a routine lie detector test taken by McKenzie led to the arrests. Under a recent police board policy, all department recruits are required to submit to lie detector tests.

The officials said that during the test McKenzie admitted the theft of inexpensive advertising novelties from an insurance agency and accused Heidorn and Jackson of the theft of five pairs of shoes in recent burglary inquiries.

Police Chief Curtis Brostrom said the shoes were recovered at homes of the two officers, who resigned without making statements.

Safe Journeys Home Is Plan Of Policemen

The Sedalia Police Department is making special efforts to see that Christmas Eve and New Years Eve party-goers get home safely.

Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin said today that police officers will be on duty throughout the night Sunday and the following Sunday, to drive anyone in Sedalia home if driver of the car feels he or she has had a little too much to drink.

Any driver who has imbibed a little too freely may call the police station, Christmas or New Year's Eve, and one of the police officers will drive the car home. Hamlin said that the department will make no special provisions for patrols or other police activity during the holiday period.

In the past two years there have been from six to 12 calls for police drivers. Hamlin said he feels the program is well worth while, in helping keep the holiday accident record at a safe level.

No tickets will be issued by the driver-officers, Hamlin said.

Strike Halts Work at Air Defense Center

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Work on the underground headquarters of the air defense nerve center came to a halt today as a strike of 250 miners continued.

The first stage of the work involves drilling tunnels in Cheyenne Mountain southwest of Colorado Springs. The North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) hopes to move its entire facilities into the mountain hideaway by 1965.

The strike began after a worker was discharged Tuesday because of what an official called violation of safety practices.

Vets to Get Forms On Income Tax

Veterans drawing pensions will receive a questionnaire along with their December checks, in connection with income tax, according to assistant State Service Officer James Taafe.

Taafe stated these questionnaires are not to be mutilated, and that he will be glad to assist any veteran in filling out the form. Taafe will be in his office on the second floor of the Pettis County Courthouse in Sedalia each Thursday, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Cuban Battle Reported By Exiled Chief

Bitter Fighting In Mountains; Say Many Killed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A military leader of the Cuban revolution, now in exile, said bloody fighting has involved rebel guerrillas and 25,000 Fidel Castro troops in central Cuba's mountains.

No confirmation of major conflict came from major Cuban exile groups or U.S. officials in this country, or from Havana. The Cuban radio ridiculed the statement made by Maj. Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo.

Gutierrez Menoyo called a news conference Wednesday and said that fierce combat was in progress in the Escambray Mountains between rebel units and Castro militia trying to stamp out their increased activities.

"Just today," Gutierrez Menoyo said, "we received word of bitter fighting that has left many militiamen dead at Obispo near Sancti Spiritus."

In 1958 Gutierrez Menoyo led the second front of Escambray, an army that cooperated with Castro's forces in overthrowing Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista. Gutierrez Menoyo, a supporter of Castro after the latter took over in January, 1959, fled into exile in January, 1961, and charged the bearded revolutionary with being a Communist.

Gutierrez Menoyo said two former comrades of the Escambray army are in the field leading rebel forces there now. He identified them as Capt. Everardo Salas and Lt. Elio Balmaseda.

"The guerrilla movement was formed in the Escambray Mountains last Nov. 10," Gutierrez Menoyo said. "Our force is made up of anti-Communist Cubans from every walk of life—students, soldiers and even militiamen who have defected from Castro."

Cuban exile leaders in Washington said they got no reports of major clashes between Castro and insurgent groups. But they said there have been signs of some minor contacts between the guerrillas and Castro troops trying to hunt them down.

Wards Robbery Case Nets Four Year Term for One Man

The case of burglary of the Montgomery Ward store last August was partially disposed of in Circuit Court Thursday morning.

One of three men charged with the burglary, Robert Leon Hix of the Kansas City area, pleaded guilty through his attorney, William F. Brown, and was sentenced to a total of four years in custody of the Missouri State Department of Corrections. He received two years for second degree burglary, and two years for taking more than $50 in goods from the store.

Awaiting trial on similar charges are Talbert Wesson and Joe Shakelford, alias Joe Sweets, both of the Kansas City area.

Taken in the burglary, said to be one of the biggest in Sedalia this year, were several guns and appliances. The three men were arrested some time after the burglary, through cooperation of the Sedalia Police Department, the Pettis County Sheriff's office and the Kansas City Police Department.

The charges were filed by Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz, Nov. 7.

Missouri's Brief Warmup to Fade Out

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Missouri's brief warmup is expected to fade out.

While it will be warmer in the eastern and southern sections of the state Friday, it will be turning colder in the northwest and southwest. Lows by morning will be in the high 20s northwest and in the 30s elsewhere.

To End Katanga Secession With Elisabethville's Nod

DUTY CALLS KENNEDY BACK—Stepping from his jet at Washington's National Airport, President Kennedy appeared to have recovered from the cold he contracted on his South American trip. A security Council meeting before his talks with Britain's Prime Minister Macmillan brought Kennedy back to the capital.

After Denouncing Reds

General Assembly Ends 16th Session

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly recessed its 16th session early today for Christmas after denouncing Soviet domination over Hungary and Red Chinese oppression in Tibet.

The two resolutions were passed over bitter opposition from the Soviet bloc, which accused the United States of dredging up cold war issues that have remained dormant since the last time the U.N. acted on them in 1959.

The 104-nation forum approved 49-17 with 32 abstentions a resolution deploring "the continued disregard" by the Soviet Union and the Hungarian regime of assembly resolutions concerning the situation in Hungary.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson warned the Soviet Union and Hungary that the U.N. had not forgotten the 1956 revolt stamped out by Soviet armor.

Earlier, the assembly voted 55-11 with 30 abstentions for a resolution expressing grave concern over violations of human rights in Tibet, now under Chinese domination. Only the Soviet bloc and Cuba voted no.

Soviet Delegate S. G. Lapin claimed the entire Tibetan issue had been fabricated to cover actions "of the Anglo-American colonizers" to create a military base against Communist China.

The session, which opened in September under the shadow of Dag Hammarskjöld's death on a mission to Katanga, recessed until Jan. 15 a few hours before word reached New York that Katanga President Moise Tshombe had agreed to end his province's secession from the central Congo government.

Despite the Congo crisis, the Democrat to Publish During Holidays; Departments to Open

The Democrat and Capital will be published without interruption during the Christmas and New Year's holidays, Monday, Dec. 25, and Monday, Jan. 1. The Monday Democrat will be delivered at the usual time as will the Tuesday Morning Capital following both dates.

The Business office will be closed both Holiday Mondays, however, all departments will be staffed and may be reached by calling TA 6-1000.

Classified advertising for the Monday edition will be accepted until 10 a.m. Monday morning. Display advertising for the Monday editions will be accepted until 5 p.m. Friday, Dec. 22, and 5 p.m. Friday, Dec. 29. Display advertising copy for the Tuesday, Dec. 26 and Jan. 2 editions will be accepted until noon both Christmas and New Year's Day.

session included a number of key decisions triggered by agreement between the Soviet Union and the United States.

Behind-scenes talks between Stevenson and Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian E. Zorin brought accord on such knotty issues as arrangements for negotiations on disarmament and outer space and the choosing of a successor for Hammarskjöld.

These agreements were considered especially significant because they showed Soviet willingness to shelve for the time being Premier Khrushchev's troika principle of equal representation of Western, Communist and neutral nations.

After weeks of bargaining, the Soviets dropped demands for a three-headed board to run the secretariat with a built-in veto. They agreed to let U Thant of Burma head the organization, leaving the choice of advisers up to him.

The Soviets also abandoned insistence that committees to negotiate disarmament and outer space questions be formed on the troika principle.

Teen-agers Rob Food Stand And Take Hostage

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Two teen-aged boys held up a dairy food stand at Springfield, Wednesday night and fled with the owner's 16-year-old daughter as a hostage.

They were arrested about two hours later when Lenetta Aulick "persuaded us to return to the food stand."

Lenetta was not harmed.

Patrolman Bill Lloyd said an officer was waiting at the food stand and took the boys into custody. After questioning, Lloyd said they were placed in the Greene County jail on an open charge pending further investigation. The boys were not identified.

Mrs. Etta Aulick, owner of the food stand, told police she, Lenetta and another daughter, Patricia, 10, were cleaning up after closing when the boys showed up.

Elderly Couple Dies As Fire Sweeps Home

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Mo. (AP)—An elderly couple died Wednesday night in a fire that swept through their small home three miles south of here.

The victims were Arthur Melvin Wilson, 93, and his wife, Bertha, 70. The cause of the fire was not known.

8-Point Declaration Handed United Nations

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — President Moise Tshombe agreed today to end the secession of his wealthy Katanga province but said that his supporters in Elisabethville must approve before the agreement is carried out.

Ashombe and Premier Cyrille Adoula of the central Congo concluded the pact to restore unity in the Congo after more than 15 hours of negotiations at the U.N. military base at Kitona. They promptly flew off to their respective capitals of Elisabethville and Leopoldville.

Tshombe signed an eight-point declaration which was presented formally to the United Nations. Its text, announced by the central Congo government, was brief and in skeleton form. It said:

"The president of the province of Katanga . . .

"1. Accepts the application of the fundamental law of May 19, 1960, the Congo's provisional constitution under which Katanga is a province and not an independent or autonomous (state).

"2. Recognizes the indivisible unity of the Republic of the Congo.

"3. Recognizes President (Joseph) Kasavubu as chief of state.

"4. Recognizes the authority of the central government over all parts of the republic.

"5. Agrees to the participation of representatives of the province of Katanga in a government commission to prepare a new constitution.

"6. Agrees to take all measures to permit senators and deputies of Katanga Province to exercise the national functions (that is participate in the national parliament).

"7. Agrees that the gendarmerie of Katanga shall be placed under the authority of the president of the republic.

"8. Agrees to see that the resolutions of the (U. N.) Security Council and General Assembly are respected and to facilitate their execution.

"(Signed) Tshombe."

Tshombe before leaving Kitona told newsmen the declaration would have to be ratified by his cabinet and the Katanga Assembly. But a U.N. spokesman asserted: "As far as we are concerned it is signed, sealed and delivered. There is no question of ratification."

No Communists Show Up For Registration

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Justice Department officials apparently had a case today against each member of the U.S. Communist party — about 10,000 persons by FBI estimate.

By the time the zero hour was reached at midnight Wednesday, not one of them had come forward to register as an agent of a foreign power, the Soviet Union, as required by the Internal Security Act, the department reported.

School Bond Vote May, May Not, Have Received Majority

The $32,500 school building bond election held in the Pettis Co. R-VII School District on Wednesday may or may not pass, according to information from Ray Caldwell, R-VII school board president.

Caldwell said the actual vote Wednesday was 140 in favor of the issue, and 73 against it, for a total of 213 votes. A two-thirds majority (or 142 votes) is needed to pass the issue, and there are seven absentee ballots to be counted.

Caldwell said the absentee ballots cannot be counted until 7 p.m. tonight — 24 hours after the polls closed Wednesday.

Urban Renewal Grant

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $64,780 grant to the Missouri Division of Commerce and Industrial Development was announced today by the Urban Renewal Administration.

The money will help finance preparation of a plan for the growth of the Springfield, Mo., metropolitan area.

Kennedy Lands In Bermuda

Big Two Meeting To Get Underway Later In The Day

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — Leaving his stricken father's bedside, President Kennedy flew into Bermuda today for wide-ranging talks with Prime Minister Macmillan.

The President and the British leader scheduled a luncheon meeting at government house 45 minutes after Kennedy's arrival at Bermuda's Kindley Air Force Base.

The central problems of West Berlin and an Allied approach to Moscow are expected to take up much of the two-day talks.

Kennedy visited his father, Joseph P. Kennedy, at St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach, Fla., for a half hour before taking off for Bermuda at 9:51 a.m. EST. He said his father's condition appeared to be "about the same." The President returns to Palm Beach Friday evening but will be kept informed about his father's condition during his rendezvous with Macmillan. If necessary, he could fly back to Florida in little more than two hours.

Besides reviewing the Berlin and German question, Kennedy and Macmillan are expected to pay considerable attention to the Congo question, nuclear weapons and the future of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. It is also likely they will take a long careful look at the role of the so-called neutral nations in the light of India's takeover of Goa and the threat of Indonesian action against the Dutch in New Guinea.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk arranged a luncheon with his British counterpart, Lord Home, while their bosses were going to their private luncheon.

Invited to the Rusk-Home luncheon on the British side, were Sir David Ormsby-Gore, British ambassador to Washington; Sir Norman Brook, secretary to the British Cabinet; Sir William Penney, adviser on nuclear weapons; and Sir Evelyn Shuckburgh, deputy undersecretary of state for European affairs.

On the American side were George Bundy, the President's adviser on security affairs; Charles E. Bohlen, expert on Soviet affairs; David Bruce, ambassador to London; Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission and several others.

Vain Search For Lost Son, Ends for Rocky

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller announced "with deep regret" today that a search for his youngest son Michael, 23, who was lost off the coast of New Guinea had been ended and no trace of him has been found.

Rockefeller said he had been notified by the government of New Guinea that "the search has been brought to an end."

Rockefeller made the announcement at a news conference in his office.

Michael Rockefeller last was seen Nov. 19, when he plunged into waters off the coast of New Guinea from a disabled boat. He was on an anthropological expedition in search of primitive art in a remote, uncivilized section of New Guinea.

Miss Randy Broom Exchanges Vows With Mr. Fred Godfrey

Miss Randy Broom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Broom, 1220 South Ohio, and Mr. Fred Godfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Godfrey, Sanford, N. C., were united in marriage at half past two o'clock at the Community Methodist Church, Fairfield, California. The Rev. Arnold Lewis performed the double ring ceremony. The altar of the church was decorated with an altar bouquet

Gifts Offer Ultimate In The Unusual

NEW YORK (AP)—Here are some gifts that are truly better to give than to receive. They are being advertised under the heading "Things You Probably Never Knew Existed."

False doggy eyelashes—Just the thing, says the department store ad, for "these competitive days in a dog's life. Sure to win a grateful smooch from your pooch." They're $3.95.

Automatic waterer for dogs—The ad offers a $2.98 attachment for Rover so he won't have to sit up and beg when he wants a drink. "All he does is trot over to the waterer, nudge the wobbler and out comes the H₂O."

Inflatable travel hanger—For the tourist who likes to travel light, there's a hanger for a dollar that's flat as a hanky in the suitcase but can be blown up on arrival to chubby size. It's breath-taking.

Instant coffee dispenser—"Perfect," says the ad, "for the guy who can never find a spoon. With this little dandy and the mechanical ingenuity of a space engineer, he can just turn his jar of instant coffee upside down, turn the knob once—and we hope he likes his coffee strong." The price is ground down to 49 cents.

Ten-speed bicycle—If you're the kind who likes to shift for himself, there's a bike that has 10 (count 'em) gears. You still have to pedal, though—if you can find time between shifts.

Cool ravioli—Man, it's a drag eating square ravioli all the time. For a mere dollar you can get a special cutter that cuts your ravioli into hip circles. It's Roundsville.

Wet whistle—For loud parties, you can get plastic stirrers with whistles attached. At 8 for a dollar, you can have your guests whistle at you when they want a drink.

Of course, you could save all that trouble by buying the automatic waterer mentioned above and filling it with good cheer.

Empty Place Settings At Wing Dinner

KANSAS CITY (AP)—There were four empty place settings at a formal officers dinner of the 442nd troop carrier wing Wednesday night.

Beside the place settings were four Air Force officers hats, four empty wine glasses and four place cards.

On the cards were the names of four dead in Tuesday's crash of a C-124 Globemaster at nearby Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base. The cards read: Maj. Jacob T. Battenberg, Capt. Bobby E. Wunsch, 1st Lt. Warren R. High and Capt. Brodie Bryant. Three enlisted men also died in the crash-up, M. Sgt. DeWitt F. Edgar, M. Sgt. Garland C. Van Meter and Airman 1st Class Dale R. Willert.

Col. James H. McPartlin, commander of the 442nd, stood solemnly. "Gentlemen," he said, "a toast." The 225 officers rose and drank with him. Not a word was spoken.

The dinner had been planned several months ago, and Battenberg, Wunsch, High and Bryant were to have attended.

A preliminary report on an investigation of the crash is expected Friday.

"We are completely mystified," McPartlin said Wednesday. "It was only a minor emergency and the plane was carrying a highly qualified crew. At this point, there is nothing to indicate what might have caused the aircraft to wing over and plunge to the ground at such a steep angle."

Find Nitroglycerine Outside Cocktail Bar

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Two policemen found an oddly marked bottle outside a cocktail lounge. They suspected it contained nitroglycerine—enough to blow up the neighborhood.

They buried the bottle and an explosives expert took over. He dug it up, took a taste and said he thought it was hair oil. Everyone relaxed.

Then extensive laboratory tests were run Wednesday. It was nitroglycerine.

Police are investigating.

NEW YORK (AP)—More than 800 Queens property owners have joined in a $2-million suit against the Port of New York Authority and 40 airlines for alleged damages from jet noise. The homeowners claim jets taking off and landing at Idlewild Airport have caused a 20 per cent drop in property values.

Bi-Partisans Poked At By Truman

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman advised a bi-partisan political group on precinct politics Wednesday night.

First he made it clear in typical Truman fashion that, as a good Democrat, he doesn't think much of bi-partisan politics.

"I don't like bi-partisans," he said. "Whenever a fellow tells me he's bi-partisan, I know he's going to vote against me."

"I'm a Democrat," he added. "Naturally, I want to elect a Democratic ticket."

"No one," Truman said, "is more important to the welfare of this great country of ours than the precinct captain. He has to understand his people and know what they want and then see if he can get it for them."

"I know. I've been one. Few people who have started at the top understand this."

Politics is government, the former President continued. "We want people to participate more in government. There is a place for young people in city and county government."

The group Truman addressed was the City Central Political Committee, comprised of Young Democrats and Young Republicans.

Farmer Rescues Pig From Death in Lake

ATLANTA (AP)—William C. Rimmer Jr. saw a familiar figure swimming in a lake on his farm, then began to sink.

Despite the cold and rain, Rimmer dived in, grabbed the 250-pounder, worked his way to shore and administered artificial respiration.

The almost-victim was Rimmer's only pig.

Christmas Greetings Bear 50 Cent Stamps

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—Postal clerks noticed a batch of 40 Christmas cards, each bearing a 50-cent stamp. Postmaster Richard D. Eddy checked with the woman named in the return address. It was no mistake, she informed him. She had some of the 50-cent stamps on hand and wanted to dress up her cards.

Fall of Goa Brings Death to Attorney

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Goan-born Joaquin Santa Rita Colaco, 64, a lawyer, fell dead Wednesday when he heard on the radio that Goa had fallen to Indian invaders. Only the day before he had told friends: "I will not survive the loss of Goa."

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: What can a person say to a proud father who buttonholes you on the street, in the office, or at a social affair and pulls out a billfold loaded with pictures of his kids? Usually you get a 15 minute monologue along with the pictures.

I'm a father, too, and my kids happen to be very attractive, but I wouldn't dream of imposing on people this way.

Yesterday a former neighbor grabbed me in an elevator and pulled me off at his floor to show me pictures of his children. They were the homeliest collection of toothless monsters I have ever laid eyes on.

Of course I had to say "Aren't they cute?" I felt like a liar and a jerk. Is there an out? — SANTA BARBARA

Dear Santa: Sorry, but you can't say. This is the homeliest collection of toothless monsters I have ever laid eyes on."

Since you insist on being factual, I suggest Samuel Goldwyn's famous line when he was asked to view a competitor's movie. He smiled and said "You've really got a picture there!"

Dear Ann Landers: My aunt Eva raised me after my mother died in a TB sanitarium.

She was so brutal and heartless that I quit school and left home the very day I was legally able to do so. I battled around plenty but God must have been watching over me because I met a wonderful guy and married at 18.

We've been married seven years, have a lovely home and three fine little ones.

Aunt Eva comes over almost every day, rain or shine, and makes my life unbearable. She threw out all my pots and pans because she says aluminum causes cancer. She also threw out my electric heating pad and sun lamp because she read that too much heat could cause diabetes. I think she's mentally ill and have suggested therapy. She says she's perfect — it's the doctors who are crazy.

After seven years I'm a nervous wreck. My physician says I must put an end to her visits. How can I? — NYACK

Dear Nyack: If tomatoes made you deathly ill you'd eliminate them from your diet, wouldn't you? Well, when people make you sick — do the same thing. You needn't subject yourself to Aunt Eva's punishment. Tell her she can visit you by invitation only (doctor's orders) and invite her when (or if) you feel up to it.

Dear Ann Landers: We are worried about our 14-1/2-year-old son. He is 5'10", weighs 170 pounds and his voice hasn't begun to change yet. Several of the fellows he goes with speak in a semi-manly voice, but our son hasn't shown the slightest sign of a change.

It's embarrassing to him because when he answers the phone he is mistaken for his younger sister.

My husband says his voice didn't change until he was 16, but I don't think he remembers, actually. Shall I take the boy to a doctor? — WORRIED

Dear Worried: Yes. He will probably tell you to relax—that the boy's maturation is a little slow. But you'll all feel better when you get a physician's reassurance.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Morgan County Students Get Tests for TB

The Morgan County nursing service reported this week 1,778 youngsters have been given tuberculosis tests as a part of a county-wide school certification program of TB control.

Mrs. Helen Bolton, county health nurse, said 71 of these were positive reactors to the test and 32 had undergone a follow-up x-ray. Positive reactors are free chest x-ray paid for by the county tuberculosis society.

Two types of certificates will be awarded each of the county schools. Type "A" certificates will indicate 100 per cent of the school personnel and 95 to 100 per cent of the students participated. Type "B" certificates indicate 100 percent of the school personnel took part and 85 to 95 per cent of the students.

Type "A" certificates go to: Versailles high school, upper and lower elementary, St. Paul's Lutheran, Syracuse, Barnett, Rounton and Joe Taylor. Type "B" certificates: Gravois Mills and Florence. No certificates will go to Stover schools as 100 per cent of the personnel did not participate, the nursing service reported.

The program will continue until all follow-up work is completed by the county nurse.

Young Couple United After Brief Delay

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Tears of joy dampened the cheeks of Barbara Hipke Wednesday night as she held firmly to the hand of her fiancé, a tired airman who had taken a long bus ride to keep an appointment he missed in grand fashion two days earlier.

Moments before, the young man A.I.C. Kenneth Driskill, had been kissed resoundingly by Barbara, who flew into his arms as he stepped from the bus.

The couple spent a moment alone in the corner of the waiting room, then returned to talk of wedding plans.

Asked when they would be married, Driskill, 24, said, "As soon as possible."

Barbara, 28, a teacher, said the wedding would be in the United Church of Christ in her hometown of New Holstein, about 60 miles north of Milwaukee.

"Man, I sure am tired from all that bus riding," said Driskill, of Gaffney, S.C. He said he left Gaffney Tuesday afternoon and finally arrived in Chicago last evening. He phoned Barbara and they arranged to meet in Milwaukee.

She and Driskill met in Tripoli while he was stationed at Wheelus Air Force Base, where Barbara had a teaching assignment. They decided to marry and Driskill had purchased the ring when he was reassigned to Japan.

Barbara quit her job, plunked down $1,500 of her own money for plane fare and flew to New York, where she was to meet Driskill Monday. She waited 24 hours in the terminal but he didn't show up. She couldn't reach Driskill at his home because she didn't know his step-father's name.

After newspaper stories of her plight, Driskill was located at Gaffney. He said he had been in New York but couldn't find Barbara.

Jackson County College Center Gains Approval

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—The Central Missouri State College Board of Regents has approved a proposal to establish a full time resident center in Jackson County for daytime and evening classes for the first two years of college.

The announcement was made today by the College Committee of Jackson County, which has been seeking such a branch of the Warrensburg college here because of heavy enrollments from this area.

The Board said the college would provide and administer the instructional program on a financially self supporting basis, beginning in September 1962, if the Jackson County committee can provide the necessary facilities at a centrally located site.

John Hayner, Independence attorney and chairman of the committee, said a subcommittee is now looking for a suitable site.

The college now has a residence center for night classes here. This has grown from 75 students in 1959 to 346 in 1961. Jackson is one of the 21 counties assigned by statute to Central Missouri State College to serve.

Conservative Heads New Syrian Regime

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—President Nazam el Koudsi has chosen a conservative, Said Ghazzi, to form a new government free from Ganiat Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic.

Ghazzi, 64, one of Syria's best known lawyers, served as premier before Syria joined with Egypt in the U.A.R. The union was broken by an army revolt in September.

Truman's Daughter Home for Holidays

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—Mrs. Clifton C. Daniel and her two young sons arrived Wednesday night to spend the holidays with her parents, former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman.

Mrs. Daniel, the former Margaret Truman before her marriage to a New York newspaper editor, came by train and was met at the station by Mrs. Truman.

Daniel is expected to arrive from New York by plane Friday.

Youths Rally To Give Toys To Children

BRENTWOOD, N. Y. (AP)—Brentwood High School students, officially taken to task recently over short skirts and tight pants, have proved they are made of finer stuff.

Baring their hearts instead of their knees, they collected 300 gifts for young patients in nearby St. Charles Hospital. They delivered them Wednesday.

The toys were collected in a door-to-door campaign, undertaken to combat what the students termed bad publicity for their school.

At the end of November 37 girls were suspended for one or two days for wearing knee-revealing skirts. Boys with too-tight pants also came in for censure.

More than 60 of the Brentwood junior and senior high students took part in the toy drive. If they couldn't get new toys, they accepted old ones which could be renovated.

Vice principal Harvey S. Brickman also pointed out that the students conduct an annual drive before Christmas to aid needy families in the area.

"The students of each home room 'adopt' a family and bring in nonperishable foods for distribution at holiday time," said Brickman.

As for the high-heel and tight pants furore, he said that has quieted down.

"The girls are really complying (with longer hem-lines) and so are the boys," said Brickman, "but of course you may find one or two improperly attired students floating around."

License Refusal Provokes Anger Of Rev. Beeny

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—Evangelist Bill Beeny, angered over the state's refusal to license his Missouri youth ranch, Wednesday said state officials should concentrate on enforcing laws justly and "stop picking on the little fellow."

Beeny, in a radio interview, charged his ranch was "indirectly and unjustly accused" of responsibility for the drowning of two boys who were staying at the ranch Sunday.

State Director of Welfare Proctor N. Carter had appeared on radio Tuesday. Although he did not mention the drownings, Carter did say the youth ranch was being operated illegally. Earlier he had said the tragedy provided additional evidence the children were not properly supervised.

Beeny demanded equal time. The controversial evangelist, who announced he would close the ranch for 60 days, said during Wednesday's interview that Carter had been "grossly unfair."

Sophia Files Suit For Equal Billing

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Sophia Loren has sued producer Samuel Bronston and others because she didn't get equal billing with Charlton Heston on a 40-by-15-foot outdoor sign advertising the film "El Cid." Her suit requests an injunction to keep her name from being used in advertising the film.

GETS SCOUTING HONOR—William O. Hiatt, Jr., 1609 East Ninth, retiring chairman of the Twin Forks Boy Scout district received the Silver Beaver award at the annual district recognition banquet held recently in Marshall. The Silver Beaver is the highest adult award given in scouting. Presenting the award is Charles Bailey, Eldon, president of the Lake Ozarks Council. Also shown are Mrs. Hiatt, who was presented a bouquet of roses, and a Sedalia Cub Scout, David Green of Pack 65. (Marshall Democrat - New Engraving)

Became Top Writer

Playwright Moss Hart Rose From Poor Birth in Bronx

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Moss Hart, a child of poverty who could have written nothing more remarkable than his own success story, is dead of a heart attack.

Hart, whose genius brought him from the gloom of New York's slums to the glamor of its Great White Way, collapsed Wednesday at his winter home in this desert resort.

Hart, 57, had been suffering pain in his jaw and was going to see his dentist. "Mr. Hart was walking to his car when he fell straight back," said his agent, Irving Lazar. "He was taken to the house and the doctor came to give artificial respiration and an injection. But Mr. Hart didn't respond."

His death came only six months after that of George S. Kaufman, with whom he collaborated on such classic theater comedies as "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and the Pulitzer Prize-winning "You Can't Take It With You." Hart also was a director of such Broadway musical successes as "Camelot" and "My Fair Lady," both still running—the latter since 1956.

This was his third heart attack. He had been ill several days but it was his jaw, not his heart, that seemed to be troubling him.

His wife, actress-singer Kitty Carlisle, left the television panel show "To Tell the Truth" in New York to accompany him West several weeks ago.

Their children, Christopher, 13, and Cathy, 11, also were here. So was composer Frederick Lowe, who worked with Hart on "My Fair Lady."

Hart once recalled that he grew up "in an atmosphere of unrelieved poverty." His father, an English Jew, made a bare living as a cigar maker. His mother have been better off if it had stayed in New York. But he wrote such screen plays as "Gentlemen's Agreement," "A Star Is

Violence Breaks Out In Strike At Chance Firm

CENTRALIA, Mo. (AP)—The strike of electrical workers at the A. B. Chance Co. broke out in violence Wednesday.

Two employees who had returned to work this week said bricks were thrown through windows of their homes. Another told of being accosted by two men who assaulted him. Rocks were flung at returning workers in an earlier incident.

State troopers, police from nearby Columbia and Boone County deputies joined Centralia officers in patrolling the manufacturing plant site Wednesday night. They were accompanied by a police dog.

The Chance firm offered a reward of $1,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the window breakings and the attack. Officials of local 821 of the International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers disclaimed any knowledge of the incidents.

Chance re-opened the struck plant Monday. It had been closed

IT'S AN ILL WIND . . . A swarm of locusts darkens the sky over Karachi, Pakistan, but to the city's youth the destructive horde is manna from heaven. They collect the insects, deep-fry them and . . . yum, yum. This particular swarm was 15 miles wide, 50 long.

Cramer Trial Ends In Hung Jury Wednesday

The jury trial of Morley Cramer, 34, 707 North New York, charged with molesting a nine-year-old girl, ended Wednesday afternoon in a hung jury.

The jury, which retired at 1:45 p.m., deliberated one and one-half hours before foreman Thomas Harvey announced to the court that the members could not reach an agreement. Circuit Judge Frank Hayes later dismissed the jurors.

According to Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz, a new trial date will be set when the new session of court starts, Jan. 2.

William F. Brown was the attorney for the defendant and Judge Hayes presided.

Fire Destroys Trailer

Fire razed the trailer court home of AIC Lawrence D. Davis and his family in Knob Noster this week. The fire was believed touched off by a leak in the line between the stove and the butane gas tank.

The Base Fire Department assisted in controlling the blaze, but by the time it arrived on the scene, the trailer was a total loss. The family of Airman Davis, which was visiting friends at the time of the incident, wishes to thank all the people who have assisted them since the accident took place.

Clear Stand By Kennedy On Dominica

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy says that if the Organization of American States (OAS) lifts its sanctions against United States will restore its diplomatic relations with the Caribbean country.

Kennedy made it clear in a statement released Wednesday by the White House that the United States favors lifting the sanctions and that it is supporting such action in the OAS Council.

"If the council of the OAS takes such action—and our representatives are supporting that step—we will resume diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic promptly," Kennedy said.

The United States severed diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic in 1960 in compliance with an OAS foreign ministers resolution.

When the sanctions imposed in the last two years are removed, Kennedy said, the Agriculture Department will authorize purchases under the Dominican allocation of nonquota sugar for the first six months of next year.

Colombia Earthquake Claims 20 Persons

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—An earthquake rolled over Colombia Wednesday.

The government said at least 20 persons were killed and scores injured in the shock that was felt hardest in the west around the mining town of Sonson, 110 miles northwest of Bogota.

Accidents

Mrs. Martha Carol Witt and her mother, Mrs. Jean Frances Bullard of Knob Noster were injured in a one car accident Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock just west of Montserrat on Highway 50.

Mrs. Witt was taken to the Whiteman Air Force Base Hospital suffering from head lacerations and Mrs. Bullard was taken to the Warrensburg Medical Center suffering from multiple facial lacerations and bruises. State Trooper Jim Happy investigated the accident and said it occurred when the westbound car, driven by Mrs. Witt, skidded out of control as she applied the brakes on overtaking a slow moving vehicle.

The car turned left, plunged over a steep embankment and crashed into the embankment of the eastbound lane. The vehicle was extensively damaged.

Magistrate Court

Charles Reno, Windsor, charged with passing an insufficient funds check, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days in the Pettis County jail. The jail term was suspended on condition that he pay court costs, and make good two $10 checks he had written and passed.

Gerald D. McCormick and Robert L. Cummings, both charged with second degree burglary by taking more than $50 in goods from the Labor Temple Dec. 15, appeared in Magistrate Court Thursday morning.

A preliminary hearing for Cummings was held, and Judge Frank Armstrong ruled that a crime had been committed and that Cummings might be guilty. He bound the case over to Circuit Court.

Charles Elton McGinnis, Ft. Riley, Kans., was picked up in the 1000 block on East Broadway Wednesday, and held overnight for the military authorities. He is charged by the military with being absent without leave.

Roy Ford, 1320 East 12th, reported at 11:30 p.m. Wednesday that someone took a pair of dress boots, valued at about $20, from his car while the car was parked at the Sedalia Bowling Lanes.

The boots were recovered from a juvenile and returned to the owner.

Versailles Man In Hospital Here After Explosion

A stove explosion and fire Tuesday burned down a rural Versailles residence and seriously injured its owner.

Receiving burns over 30 per cent of his body in the blast was Dorsey Miller. Miller's wife and a 16-year-old son also were hurt, but less seriously.

A neighbor, Wayne Miller, no relation to Dorsey Miller, said he heard the explosion rip through the frame house about 7:30 a.m. The house is located about five miles west of Versailles just off Highway 52.

Wayne Miller called the rural fire department, but the fire was out of control by the time fire equipment arrived.

The house was a total loss and the occupants lost all furnishings and personal possessions except those they had with them when they fled.

The middle-aged Miller couple was taken by their son to Gunn Clinic in Versailles.

Miller was transferred to Bothwell Hospital in Sedalia. He suffered first and second degree burns of the face, neck and one arm.

Mrs. Miller and her son, less seriously burned, were released after first aid and are temporarily residing in Versailles with a minister, the Rev. James Kruse.

JC Santa Claus Pays Visit To County Schools

Four teams of Jaycees played Santa Claus to approximately 700 youngsters in Pettis County Thursday and the children responded with delight and numerous requests for Christmas gifts.

The distribution of treats composed of oranges, candy and nuts was carried out under the Junior Chamber of Commerce's annual Rural Santa Claus program, headed this year by Willis Arnold, chairman.

The teams set to work at 9:30 a.m. and each group made up of a Santa Claus and several assistants covered approximately one-fourth of the county's 22 rural schools.

Also on the list of stops by the Jaycee Santa Clauses was the Crippled Children's Center. Santa impersonated by Jaycee president Allen Hawkins, and Mrs. Santa, Mrs. Carolyn Spencer, visited the center about 10 a.m. and the occasion turned into a real Christmas party for the handicapped youngsters.

A number of Jaycees gathered Wednesday night to sack the treats and ready them for distribution.

Spots of Ice, Snow On Northern Routes

JEFFERSON CITY — Spots of ice and snow remained on extreme northern and northwestern Missouri roads today but otherwise the Highway Department reported driving conditions back to normal.

All three major cross-state routes, US 40, 50 and 66, were reported free of trouble.

Rusk Explains US Policy In the Congo

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Dean Rusk explained U.S. policy in the Congo to some of its congressional critics but apparently didn't change their minds.

Rusk, defending U.S. support of U.N. action against Katanga, said he would have no objection to an investigation of "the Congo story or to a full examination of the full (foreign policy) story."

The secretary of state was summoned to Capitol Hill quietly Wednesday to brief half a dozen members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the controversial Congo policy and on the U.S. position on India's invasion of Portuguese Goa.

He declared that neither the United States nor the United Nations is attempting to impose any political or economic system on the Congo.

Asked if U.S. support of U.N. action against Katanga—which has been condemned by Britain and some other NATO countries—had weakened U.S. alliances, he replied, "I don't think so."

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, said Rusk had not altered his view that "we are in a very precarious situation in the Congo politically and otherwise." He added: "I am greatly concerned over the split in our position with that of our traditional allies in the West."

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, said he had not changed his mind that it was a mistake for the United Nations to use its military power "to settle a domestic dispute."

Much of the criticism of the administration Congo policy had come from the Republican side of the aisle. But it was a Democrat, Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut, who announced he will press for a Senate investigation.

LaMonte PTA Holds December Meeting

The LaMonte PTA held its December meeting Monday night in the school gym.

A very large crowd was in attendance. The devotionals was given by Rev. Dale Sharp.

The kindergarten class, under the direction of Mrs. Ernest Cole, presented a short Christmas program of speeches and song. This was followed by the first six grades. Each grade gave a short skit or pantomime in keeping with our Christmas season. These were followed by the High School Trio, which sang "Prayer Perfect" and "Holy Night." The trio is composed of Sandra Schenk, Nancy Cripe and Clara Sue Breshears.

In conclusion, the High School Chorus and Junior High School Chorus composed of 125 members sang Christmas Carols while Candace Denton read the Christmas Story. This was under the direction of Mr. Robert King, music instructor.

The next meeting will be Jan. 15 and will be, "Our Dad's Night."

Couple Retains Sense of Humor After Bad Fire

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Whatever else they've lost, jeweler Harry Davis and his wife Lynn still have their sense of humor.

Their Christmas cards customarily are photographs showing the couple comfortably seated before the fireplace.

This year's cards are no exception. The Davises are sitting beside the chimney—and nothing else.

Their home was destroyed in last month's disastrous Bel-Air fire. "Our open house," the card proclaims.

At the bottom of the greeting is their temporary address in Beverly Hills, followed by the phrase, "Out but not down."

Red China Says New Nations Must Expand Their Military Arms

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China today said the most important thing for newly independent countries is "definitely not disarmament but to build up, expand and strengthen their armed forces."

"The Chinese government supports the proposals for universal disarmament," it added. "But a call for disarmament without denouncing U.S. imperialism as the ringleader working against disarmament will not bring the masses into action to struggle for disarmament."

The declaration of policy was made Monday by the Chinese delegate to the Communist-dominated World Peace Council in Stockholm, Liu Ning-yi.

Vice-president Opens Yearly Peace Pageant

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson has opened the eighth annual Pageant of Peace with the declaration that the United States "is dedicated to Christ's quest for peace."

"Not the false peace of evasion and retreat," Johnson added, "but the divine peace which comes as the fulfillment of striving and the climax of commitment. We will never falter in that dedication."

Then, as dusk closed in on the capital Wednesday, the vice president pressed a button to light the national Christmas tree on the Ellipse, a park between the White House and the Washington Monument.

Actress Vera Miles Seeks Child Support

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Vera Miles wants $300 a month from her former husband, Robert J. Miles Jr., for support of their children, Debra, 11, and Kelley, 9.

Her court petition Wednesday said no provision for the children was made when they were divorced in 1956, after an eight-year marriage. Miss Miles, 31, is now the wife of actor Keith Larsen, 35.

Hungarian Student Awaits Cherished US Citizenship

By DAVE BROWN
The Columbia Daily Tribune
Written for The Associated Press

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—A Hungarian student at the University of Missouri anticipates a gift he will cherish this Christmas.

Joseph Simonek, a freshman in chemical engineering, will have completed his 5-year residence requirement for citizenship in the United States.

Simonek cannot return to his native country. When he left it five years ago at the end of the Hungarian uprising against Russian oppression, he was an exile.

Like many of his fellows, he had lost his birthright by fighting the Iron Curtain.

On Oct. 24, 1956, he was walking in downtown Budapest, where he was studying to be an officer at Kossuth Military Academy. A student demonstration against Russia had begun, and before long, Simonek found himself caught up in a crowd of patriots.

That afternoon he watched as crowds attacked a radio station where a group of hated secret police had barricaded themselves. He heard the first bullets of the revolution whistle in the streets and saw some of the first victims fall.

He watched in disbelief as cheering students attached a wire to a statue of Joseph Stalin and pulled it down. It was the beginning of a hopeless but courageous struggle for freedom in which Simonek would take part in the next few days.

Simonek returned to the academy, but he was never to return to his former way of life. The next morning he and other cadets were armed and sent into the streets to fight the mobs. Revolted at the idea of firing at his own people, Simonek joined them instead.

Returning to the academy once more, he and other cadets loaded seven or eight trucks with weapons and ammunition for the people and drove them downtown to where the fighting was going on.

During the next days, Simonek took an active part in the courageous fight against the enemies who occupied Hungary then and still do today.

In a square at Budapest University, Simonek saw Russian tanks open fire on about 200 students and 70 or more fell to the ground. After the firing stopped, he walked out into the square.

"There I saw a sight I shall never forget," he said. "There was one student that was not yet dead. He was lying there with a rifle still clutched in his hands, staring up at me. As I looked hopelessly down at him, his eyes started to turn glassy."

The Russians sent hordes of Mongolian troops into Budapest Nov. 4, 1956 and the fight became impossible.

"We had to fight as long as we could do something," he continued. "But when the fight was lost, we could only try to escape. We would have been punished had we stayed there. Perhaps they would not have caught up with me for six months—perhaps a year—but there would have eventually been an end."

After fleeing to Austria, Simonek decided to come to the United States where he arrived a week before Christmas in 1956. He worked in a Cleveland factory before coming to the University last September.

Robinson's Former Wife Seeks Alimony

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Edward G. Robinson's former wife says the actor owes her $5,125 in delinquent alimony payments.

Gladys Lloyd Robinson, 65, petitioned Superior Court Wednesday for redress under a settlement made when she was granted a divorce in 1956. She says at that time Robinson promised to pay her 25 per cent of his gross income. But during 1960-61 she received nothing, although he made $20,500 for two films and a television appearance, she contends.

Robinson, 67, contends the money he earned was not for personal services but solely for expenses, the use of his voice and rental of his valuable paintings, the petition showed.

UN Shelves Debate On Charge by Cuba

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Political Committee has shelved debate on Cuba's charge that the United States is planning military aggression against Fidel Castro's regime. Committee Chairman Mario Amadeo of Argentina proposed that debate not take place because of lack of time as a result of the Christmas recess. There was no objection.

Watch That Christmas Tree

To mention safety precautions during the holiday season seems trite. Nevertheless it is a pertinent subject as those who have had some painful experiences in the past and currently will attest.

Putting up and trimming a tree is not without hazards. Keeping it through the holidays and even taking it down offers a challenge to safety measures. Carelessness involves lives, property or both.

With passing of the era of candles for ornaments, Christmas trees have not become entirely safe from conversion into a flaming torch. Electric light strings should be checked for loose contacts and frayed wiring. Even other ornaments should be non-inflammable. And some attention should be given by the over-eager to the wobbly stool or uncertain balance on a ladder during the contortionistic act of decorating.

Keep an eye on those spark-generating electric trains, too, if they must be assembled beneath the tree; the suspicious extension cords and the possible overload of electric circuits.

A stand with a water container for the tree will minimize drying out and lessen the hazard somewhat. Turn off the tree lights indoors when leaving the home; keep an eye on the tiny tots whose curiosity may prompt pulling over the tree or even gobbling up some of the tinsel.

Accidents may happen even with the utmost care of parents, but deliberate carelessness by ignoring safety precautions is inexcusable.

May Sedalia be free of any calamitous holiday accidents is the fervent wish of all of us, as trite as suggestive warnings may be at this time.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

How Eichmann Was Caught

(Editor's Note — While Drew Pearson is in South America his column is written by his associate, Jack Anderson.)

WASHINGTON—Now that Adolf Eichmann is about to join his 6,000,000 victims, the mystery of his capture can be cleared up.

I have talked to his family in Buenos Aires and to the authorities in Israel. Here are the facts on which they agree:

Eichmann's family did not use his name while they were hiding out in Austria. They lived under the maiden name of his wife, Veronika Liebl Eichmann.

Their first attempt to join the mass executioner in Argentina failed. The Nazi underground smuggled Veronika and her three sons across the Italian border over rugged mountains to Genoa.

They stayed for 14 days with an Italian family on Via Gobbetti street while a Franciscan monk tried to arrange refugee papers for them. But he was unable to get the necessary documents.

Discouraged, the Eichmanns sneaked back across the border, ran into some Communist border runners and joined them in gay, conspiratorial songs after they were safe in Austria.

This abortive experience forced them to get legal documents and sail to Argentina under their correct names. They arrived aboard the Argentine liner Salta on July 28, 1952.

Four American Jews, whose names must remain secret, located the Eichmann family in Buenos Aires. At first, they didn't realize that the man posing as Ricardo Klement was really Adolf Eichmann.

They supposed Veronika simply had found a new provider but hoped she might lead them to her notorious husband. Then they observed Ricardo Klement stop at a florist's to buy Veronika flowers on Adolf Eichmann's wedding anniversary.

This was the tip-off. Four Israeli commandos joined the four Americans for the historic capture. They didn't whisk him off Buenos Aires' main boulevard, Avenue General Paz, as the press reported. They waited for him outside his home.

Two were pretending to fix a stalled automobile. The others were hiding inside the car.

They pounced on Eichmann as he walked home from the bus stop. There was a brief struggle; Eichmann lost his glasses which his sons found the next day.

The Israelis smuggled him aboard an El Al plane by knocking him out, wheeling him into the airport in an ambulance, and carrying him aboard in a stretcher. They identified him as an ailing Israeli diplomat who wanted to go home to die.

Thus Adolf Eichmann, who had sent 6,000,000 Jews to their deaths, was in the hands of the survivors.

Patriot of the Pulpit

Despite ex-President Eisenhower's denunciation of superpatriots, his former secretary of agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson, has joined in the rightist revolt.

The evangelistic Mormon apostle had a reputation in Washington for rugged individualism and integrity. But like most superpatriots of the pulpit, he has a tendency to group Communists, sinners, and political opponents together.

At an anti-Communist rally in Los Angeles, he used the terms "Socialist-Democrats" and "Socialist-Communists" interchangeably. He

Junior Colleges

A group of leading college admissions officers recently meeting in Atlantic City agreed that within the next decade this country would have a universal form of public school education through the second year.

To plan for this lengthening of public education and to do justice to the numbers of students seeking admission to schools of higher learning, it will be necessary for the admissions officers to re-examine their role to offset the tendency toward technology rather than education.

Two years of college should help the student decide on his career. If he is a good student and shows promise in professional aptitude, then he should be encouraged to follow through the specialized training. If he is not a good student, then two years is sufficient to give him the feeling that he has been to college, become a little more mature to face the world, and then leave the field open for a more worthy student.

This does not mean that the two year college is for the playboy or girl. As more junior colleges study their problems, they will find the best way to further the education of the student who can only afford two years of education beyond high school.

also spoke of "a secret alliance" between Socialist-Democrats and hard-core Communists.

This has dismayed his superiors in the Mormon Church who would like him to concentrate less on Democrats and more on sinners.

David O. McKay, the venerable Mormon prophet, is a lifelong Republican. But his two counselors, Henry D. Moyle and Hugh B. Brown, are Democrats.

The latter two have had enough of Benson's political sermons, have quietly appealed to McKay to admonish the outspoken former cabinet officer.

Political Transfer

Tempted by GOP leaders to try for governor of Indiana in 1964, Maj. Gen. Paul Mayo, the Army's finance chief, has persuaded the Army to transfer his headquarters from Washington to Indianapolis.

Results: 96 civilian and 23 military subordinates, who don't want to run for anything in Indiana, have been forced to pull up stakes and move their families to the general's political home base.

The Defense Department, which likes to play musical chairs with its far-flung facilities, provided the opening for Mayo. It moved Civil Defense headquarters from Battle Creek to Washington, then shifted the Sixth Army Corps headquarters from Indianapolis to Battle Creek.

Seeing his opportunity, Mayo rushed in with a request to take over the vacated Sixth Corps facilities.

Headlines and Footnotes

A little girl named Rhonda has written to the President about a grave problem: How to get her pony into the family fallout shelter in case of an attack. President Kennedy took time out to dictate a personal, tender reply. . . . When ex-President Truman visited the White House recently, he slipped into the presidential office through a side door. President Kennedy jumped up to greet him. Remarked the grinning Truman: "It's certainly great to see someone with brains sitting in that chair for a change."

Atlantic Unity

A new world is being born in the West. The Western nations, opposed to communism are by necessity becoming more and more united. NATO is one force which has brought the western European nations together but other signs of unity are the effort to create a European Common Market, in which the United Kingdom is about to join and in which the United States will surely cooperate.

How easy is this for the British and French and the other nations who were the targets of Nazi Germany? Concentration camps are not easily forgotten and the sound of the German tongue is not music to everyone's ears.

The difference is that a new Germany has arisen. A Germany that has suffered through defeat, and which does not want to be dominated by Russia, a Germany that wants to be allied with the West. The West needs the technical skill, the industry and the loyalty of the new Germany.

If the West is to survive the unity of the Atlantic World must be achieved. It looks hopeful, but it means that old wounds will have to be healed, and the need for each other will have to be strengthened through faith cooperation and sacrifice. It will take time but it is possible.

'Still Our Queen'

Elizabeth the second, is no longer queen of Ghana, but everywhere she visited in that newly independent state she was heralded as "Our Queen."

Warned that her life might be endangered if she went to Ghana, Elizabeth with Prince Philip at her side, braved the risk, and as a result the people of the new republic took them to their hearts.

The queen danced with President Kwame Nkrumah, and Philip danced with the President's wife.

Shouts of "Our queen is beautiful!" were heard coming from the thousands of natives clamoring to get a look at her.

The native populace seem to have forgotten that before the queen arrived she was referred to as Queen of England, now she was called "Our Queen," although Ghana is now an independent sovereign state, although still a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

There is nothing like a personal visit, especially when the visitor is young and beautiful, to cure an estranged national relationship. The Queen and her Prince have done it again!

Strategy Planning for Coming Year

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The reason President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan could meet in comparative quiet at Bermuda today is because Premier Khrushchev has a spell of diplomatic asthma.

He has stopped to catch his breath after working up a Berlin crisis. Last summer, spreading tension with every word he spoke, he said he wanted the problem settled by the end of 1961.

Then—with the trouble getting explosive after his agents built a wall around East Berlin and the Allies were plainly confused on what to do about it—he sat back and said the settlement could wait until 1962.

How to deal with him next year—and they'll have to—is the No. 1 dilemma at the Kennedy-Macmillan meeting.

So, invisible in Bermuda but very much present at this Christmas-time, like a Santa Claus whose idea of fun is a bagful of cats let loose in a chimney, will be Khrushchev.

If dealing with this Russian has Kennedy and Macmillan slightly stumped, they're equally baffled about dealing with their tall ally, French President Charles de Gaulle, the haughtiest man in world diplomacy.

He not only doesn't want to deal with the Soviets on Berlin, he doesn't even want to discuss it with them. He regards even a little negotiation on this as a mark of weakness. So he

Matter of Policy Ownership Figures in Marriage Upset

BY FAYE HENLE

Q—Some time ago I bought a small insurance policy on our son's life. My husband was named as owner, I as beneficiary. We were separated shortly thereafter. I've been paying the premiums on the policy which is in my possession. Can my husband cash it in?—J. B.

A—Dear J. B.: You're in a risky spot. Your husband could repossess the policy, change the beneficiary, cash-surrender it. Even evidence that you've paid the premiums from your earnings gives you no rights.

When a marriage breaks up, such matters as policy ownership are important. Lose no time. Negotiate for ownership of this policy or resign yourself to the consequences.

Q—Wouldn't it be wise to invest in mutual funds in conjunction with life insurance rather than all life insurance for a young person?—C.L.

A—Dear C. L.: Every young person should divide his savings between protective and growth devices. You must have the protection offered by cash value life insurance in an amount sufficient to care for any emergencies.

Care group insurance will be enough, especially, if your company offers you a profit-sharing or retirement plan. Beyond this, you should invest in common stock or a mutual fund.

However, separate insurance holdings from mutual fund investments.

Don't sell paid-up insurance to stands aloof from it all.

This is nice work if you can get it, for a man in De Gaulle's position.

He not only doesn't have the army or the atomic weapons to deter the Soviet Union in a showdown—he'd have to depend on this country for that—he can't even settle the fighting in Algeria.

He's just making life tougher for Kennedy and Macmillan. The sorry part of it is that, on something so vital as the future of Berlin, the Allies are split.

Besides all this, Kennedy and Macmillan have been hit this week when they arranged their Bermuda meeting.

We, the Women

To Our Unsung Heroine-- The Back Seat Driver

By RUTH MILLETT

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Well, what do you know? At last someone has written an article called "Let's Be Kind to Back-Seat Drivers." And it didn't appear in a woman's magazine, but in one of those automobile newsletters that go out to car owners—both men and women.

The gist of the article is that, according to safety experts, the back-seat driver isn't such a bad idea after all.

Sorry to report there were no statistics proving how many acci-

This is Prime Minister Nehru's invasion and take-over of the Portuguese colony of Goa. There's nothing Kennedy and Macmillan can do about making Nehru dis-gorged Goa. But the problem he created goes far beyond the realms of that tiny colony on the southwest coast of India. Portugal is a member of NATO, the Western alliance, along with the United States and Britain.

But India is part of the British Commonwealth.

All in all, Khrushchev hasn't had it so good in years. No wonder he was willing to relax a bit after working the Allies into a tizzy on Berlin.

dents have been avoided by back-seat-driving wives who keep their eyes on the speedometer, who read aloud all such signs as "Slow to 15 miles an hour," "Road slippery when wet," "No passing," and "Road under construction." But any backseat driver worth her salt KNOWS she is the best safety device in her husbands automobile.

The trouble is, husbands never give their wives credit for any of their near-misses on the highway. Their only thanks for a timely "Look out!" is an annoyed, "Do you want to drive?" or, "I had plenty of room; what are you yelling about?"

But back-seat drivers know their value. Perhaps men wouldn't be so resentful of their wives' help in driving if it didn't come as such a shock to them to find out that all it takes to turn a woman into a back-seat driver is a license—not a driver's license, but a marriage license.

The very same girl who, before marriage, will snuggle down comfortably while her date steps on the gas and weaves in and out of traffic, is a different road companion once the man at the wheel becomes her husband.

No longer does she pretend admiration for his daring when he risks her neck by passing on a hill or roaring along on a rainy night. No, indeed.

She suddenly becomes a back-seat driver, much more interested in getting home safely than in letting her husband show her what a demon he is at the wheel.

Stunned by this sudden switch, men are just naturally resentful. And even though they may read the article taking up for back-seat drivers, it isn't likely they'll ever like having one in the car with them.

The Doctor Says

Body's Chemistry Is Nothing to Tinker With

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.

Many self-styled "authorities on diet," who frequently seem to thrive on their ignorance of established principles of nutrition and of the miraculous workings of the human body, make their recommendations in the manner of a contractor ordering materials to build a house — so many feet of lumber. So many bags of cement. So many pounds of nails. So much paint. And so forth.

What they either don't know or choose to ignore is the important fact that the living body, to use a Biblical phrase, can "make bricks out of straw."

You put swill into pigs and get out bacon and pork chops. You put cattle out to graze and you get milk, cream, butter, beefsteaks and veal chops. You let your chickens peck away on feed you wouldn't put in your mouth and you get out slices of white meat and delicious livers for your scrambled eggs.

What all this means is that, with very few exceptions, the essentials for growth and maintenance of the living body can be obtained or made from the food-stuffs of the basic diet.

It means, for the most part, that the purchase of special foods for special purposes makes very little sense to the trained nutritionist or physician.

The same sort of ignorance of the workings of the living body is also profitable, at the expense of the public, to "gland faddists" and to those who exploit the sale of what may be useful products when put to proper use.

With few exceptions, and perhaps none, the glandular secretions (hormones) that enter directly into the blood stream are held in balance by a control center that's situated at the base of the skull (anterior pituitary gland).

Note the word, "balance."

Now, when a secretion is deficient, the master gland can usually exert a bit more pressure to raise the local production output, something like working a night shift. And when a secretion is produced in excess, the control center can reduce the working days to three a week.

What happens, then when we start tinkering with this delicate adjustment may be just the opposite of what we set out to do.

For example, if a secretion is deficient and we try to make up the deficiency by feeding or injecting the gland extract in question, the master gland may take a nap. Then, up to a point, the more we feed the more we need.

Indeed, if we continue feeding until the body is loaded beyond capacity the control center may then reduce the work week of the local factory until it, too, takes a nap. And we have worsened the situation that we were trying to better.

Perhaps an example will illustrate what I'm trying to explain in words:

Recently, scientists of the Medical College of Georgia were given a product to test that was supposed to interfere with fertilization. To their amazement, it proved to favor the processes of fertilization. And, if these effects can be translated into human terms, the product may actually help some barren women to conceive.

Maybe these observations will partially explain why some unknown cynic once remarked: "where ignorance is bliss, it's folly to be wise."

TIME OF YOUR LIFE

BY ARTHUR LORD

for practical advice on the problems of growing older.

SHE RESENTS LIFE WITH FATHER

DEAR ARTHUR: My 68-year-old father has lived with us for three years. The house is crowded with him in it, but we can't exactly ask him to leave. So we put up with him.

The man is old-fashioned and slow and it takes him forever to do things. I take time out of my life to tell him what to do, but he always seems resentful. I can't understand that.

If the man is going to live off me and my family, the least he can do is what I ask of him. Don't you think so? G.

DEAR G.: I don't think that the least your father can do for you is to heel at your command. In truth, the least that YOU can do for him is to leave him alone.

Don't tell the man what to do or how to do it. He's all too well aware of that. He doesn't want to be regimented. He wants the same sort of affection and attention that you want.

If he had the financial means and the spiritual strength, he would not knowingly choose to be the burden you find him. He'd live by himself.

You can give him the next-best gift if you will just allow him to go his own ways without your interference.

DEAR ARTHUR: At a woman's club meeting in our church recently, the discussion leader asked us what we thought old age was. Most of the people said that it occurred between 55 and 65. I think old age occurs after you are 65. What do you think old age is? EUNICE

DEAR EUNICE: As far as I'm concerned, old age begins the moment you start to worry about it. But I know that opinions vary widely on this subject. If other readers have comments about the definition of old age, send them to me in care of this paper. I'll print the answers in the near future.

DEAR ARTHUR: Ten years ago when I was 65, I applied for my Social Security benefits. I have worked part-time and paid into Social Security ever since. I get only $69 a month. Am I not entitled to more benefits due to my present earnings? G. I.

DEAR G. I.: The amount of your Social Security benefit depends on your average monthly earnings. A monthly benefit of $69 is based on average monthly earnings of between $128 and $132.

If your earnings after 1951 were more than those before 1951, you may be eligible for an increase.

Be sure to bring this matter to the attention of your local Social Security office at once.

OLEANDER'S CHRISTMAS EVE

Goa Incident Brings Home Sober Facts

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. JAP.—The case of Goa has brought home a sobering fact to many U.N. diplomats: the United Nations of today is not the organization they knew 10 or even 5 years ago. The change prompts some of the alarms that are being sounded about its future.

The flood of Asian and African countries into membership has introduced new concepts, new codes of conduct. Some Western diplomats express concern that the group's growing influence may so transform the U.N. that the West can no longer accept it.

In the Goa case, for example, the Soviet Union was not alone in opposing a cease-fire. The Security Council's three African-Asian members—Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic—joined the Soviets.

Going even further, these three demanded that the council reject Portugal's complaint and call on Portugal in effect to turn over the areas to India voluntarily.

This was a factor in Adlai E. Stevenson's pessimistic statement Tuesday. He said the Soviet veto was consistent "but I find the attitude of some other members of the council profoundly disturbing."

"We have witnessed tonight," he went on, "an effort to rewrite the charter, to sanction the use of force in international relations when it suits one's own purposes. This approach can lead only to chaos and to the disintegration of the United Nations."

The combination of Asian-African and Communist support for India convinced the Western powers that it would be futile to follow the usual practice of going before the General Assembly in the face of a veto. They did not relish the prospect of being slapped down by a whopping vote.

One of the things that has shocked Western diplomats is the frankness of many Asian and African delegates in declaring that the use of force is permissible if used to free a dependent territory.

There is some fear that this line of thinking might lead to a wave of violence, particularly against territories held by Portugal and South Africa—the main targets of Asian-African criticism.

The possibility is striking in view of the support the Soviet bloc gives Asian-African countries on colonial questions. The two groups make a formidable coalition in the 104-nation General Assembly. The Asian-African group not even an organized bloc 10 years ago, now has 50 members. The Soviet bloc has 10 members plus Cuba. Between them they come close to a two-thirds majority.

Stevenson and other Western diplomats seem fearful that the Asian-African attitude may lead to extreme measures which could discredit the United Nations or force the withdrawal of the Western powers who were its chief founders and still furnish its chief financial support.

Third X15 Takes Test Hop With New Instruments

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A third X15 rocket plane has taken to the air and made the first test of new controls for space flight.

Pilot Neil A. Armstrong of the U.S. space agency flew the ship at 2,454 miles per hour and to an altitude of 80,000 feet in an 11-minute maiden flight Wednesday.

There was no attempt to go higher or faster. The two other X15s hold the world records for both speed and altitude.

The flight tested a computer-like device that automatically operates jets in the nose and wings to correct deviations in space flight faster than a man can think. Heretofore the pilot has had to operate the control jets manually. They are needed because of the rare atmosphere at high altitudes. Armstrong expressed satisfaction with the performance.

Hang Four Koreans For Red Activities

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Choi In-kyoo, 43, home minister under former President Syngman Rhee, and four others were hanged today. They had been convicted on charges ranging from political terrorism to pro-Communist activities.

Those who went to the gallows with Choi were Cho Yong-soo, 31, a newspaper publisher accused of pro-Communist activity; Choi Paik-kun, 47, another leftist; Kwak Jung-joo, 30, former chief bodyguard for Rhee, and Lim Hwa-soo, 40, a hoodlum leader close to Rhee.

Newsboy Gives His Profits To Salvation Army

KINGSPORT, Tenn. (AP)—The newsboy kept walking past the Salvation Army Christmas collection kettle. Each trip he dropped in 2 cents.

An Exchange Club member, helping man the kettle station, finally figured it out. The 9-year-old lad was donating his two cents profit from each paper sale.

Just to be sure, a clubman went up and purchased a paper and gave the boy a nickel tip. A few minutes later the lad was back at the kettle. This time he dropped in seven cents.

"Do you know anybody the Salvation Army has helped?" a club member asked the newsboy, three weeks ago.

"Yes, sir. We got a Christmas basket last year," the boy replied. Wednesday, the Exchange Club had the newsboy as its special guest at a luncheon. He left with a new bicycle, wearing a new jacket and with a savings account book showing more than $60 on deposit for his future education.

He was introduced only as Gary. The club said it wanted to publicize the deed, rather than the boy and his family.

Salvation Army records showed that Gary is one of five children, aged 2 to 13. The parents have worked irregularly this year, with the top income for one month about $57.

South Side 4-H Club Holds Christmas Meet

The South Side County Liners 4-H Club met at the South Side School Monday with 13 members and 25 visitors present.

This was the annual Christmas and gift exchange.

A short business meeting was held. Following the business, Christmas carols were sung by the group. Games were played and gifts exchanged by the members and leaders.

Refreshments were served to all present. Ronald Logan was welcomed by the club as a new member.

The next meeting will be Jan. 8 at the South Side School. Seal requirements will be explained and a committee appointed for National 4-H Week.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"You're never too old to twist," said a dance hall ad. So Bernard Tampion, 79, went to the ballroom. He was in the midst of a twist when he collapsed in front of the bandstand and died of a heart attack.

Players Name NEA All-Players, All-Pro Grid Team

By MURRAY OLDERMAN

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The Green Bay Packers, getting their second straight shot at a National Football League championship, showed why in the seventh annual All-Players All-Pro team, released today by Newspaper Enterprise Association and the Sedalia Democrat-Capital.

The Western Division titlists placed three men on offense and two on defense in the balloting of the professionals. They had four more scattered through the second unit. The New York Giants, didn't stand around and wait to be counted, either. Three of them, spearheaded by the remarkable Y. A. Tittle, shoved onto the offensive platoon, another made it on defense and four more were close runners-up.

The 22 stars, the best in football selected by the men who know them best, will be honored at the Pro Bowl in Los Angeles Jan. 15 with trophies sponsored by the Flier Chewing Gum Co.

Mike Ditka achieved a unique status as the first recruit to make the team since Jim Brown broke in with a crash for Cleveland in 1957. Mike is the tight end of the Chicago Bears and signifies an up-dating in the voting method.

FOR THE FIRST TIME, the ends were designated as "tight" and "split." The traditional halfback pairing was realistically divided into "flanker" and "running back." On defense, players were urged to vote for corner and middle linebackers separately.

Nevertheless, two men—Jim Taylor, Green Bay, and Bill George, Chicago—were so good in the eyes of the players that the voters crossed the position line and elected fullback Taylor as the running mate of Jimmy Brown and middle guard George as a corner backer.

The daddy of the team, for the seventh straight year, is Joe Schmidt, the inspirational leader of the Detroit defense. He is the only man to be elected to every All-Players All-Pro team and he did it this year against the stiff competition of George and New York's Sam Huff. And still he was the leading vote getter of them all.

There are six newcomers—Ditka and Taylor, Dan Currie, Fred Thurston and Henry Jordan of the Packers and Jimmy Hill of the St. Louis Cardinals.

HILL AND THURSTON should buoy and kid who goes to a school like Sam Houston or Valparaiso. Hill wasn't even drafted, the Cards scooping him up as a free agent from a semi-pro team in 1955. Thurston, who cleans out defensive lines like a snow blower, was thumbed down by the Philadelphia Eagles, Bears and Baltimore Colts before Coach Vince Lombardi saw something in him as a running guard.

Big Daddy Lipscomb, shunted by Baltimore to Pittsburgh, had a big year. He barely beat out Roger Brown, the 300-pound Detroit tackle who showed exceptional voting strength.

Most notable absences from the first string all-star array are Paul Hornung of the Packers and the Colts' Raymond Berry. Hornung no doubt was hampered by his interruption for Army duty. Berry missed the first two games of the season with a knee operation. There was also the notable comeback of Del Sholner, 1958-59 choice who slumped for Los Angeles last year but bounced back as a Giant threat.

Tommy McDonald of the Eagles, for all his greatness as a deep threat, had to yield his flanker spot to the Colts' versatile Lennie Moore. So there is the strange phenomenon of the Philadelphia Eagles, last year's champions, being shut out completely. Maybe it ays to be a winner.

Nagel May Be Coach At Nebraska

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Coach Ray Nagel of the University of Utah last night was interviewed by William (Tip) Dye, newly appointed athletic director of Nebraska University, for the head football coaching job at the Nebraska school.

Dye, presently athletic director at Wichita University, will take over at Nebraska Jan. 1. He is seeking a coaching replacement for Bill Jennings whose 5-year contract was not renewed at Nebraska after the past season.

Dye said the get together with Nagel was a preliminary meeting "such as we will have with all the candidates."

"I plan to talk to four or five candidates," Dye said. He said he had interviewed only head coaches so far.

Nagel's Utah team last season beat Colorado who will play Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl, Oregon and Arizona State in non-conference games but was beaten 7-0 by Wisconsin.

A star player at UCLA, Nagel was freshman coach there in 1950, assistant coach in 1951-52; player-coach with the old pro Chicago Cardinals in 1953; backfield coach at Oklahoma University in 1954, and backfield coach again at UCLA in 1955-57.

His Utah teams since 1958 have posted records of 4-6, 5-5, 7-3 and 6-4.

Nagel is on a year-to-year contract basis at Utah. He said he thought the job at Nebraska would "offer an interesting challenge."

Wichita is in the market for a football coach to replace Hank Foldberg, former Army end, who resigned to become head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M. The athletic directorship at Wichita also is open.

Boston College Shops For New Grid Coach

BOSTON (AP)—Boston College was shopping today for a new football coach.

Ernie Heffeler, who had a 7-12-1 record over the past two seasons, announced late Wednesday that he was resigning to return to the University of Pittsburgh as an assistant coach.

Heffeler, 46, succeeded Mike Holovak after the 1959 season. Heffeler had another year left on his three-year contract. There had been reports that some alumni factions were disappointed with the former Duquesne end.

Villanova Grid Coach Unhappy

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP)—Villanova football coach Alex Bell says he is disappointed and disillusioned over the Cleveland Browns' signing of end Ron Meyers before his college eligibility was used up.

But Bell, who came here from Harvard two years ago, said it was mainly a matter of ethics. "The Cleveland scout should have known better than to sign him with the bowl game coming up. We expect them to act in good faith," Bell said.

The 6-foot-4, 215-pound Meyers was signed by the National Football League Browns just two weeks before Villanova meets Wichita in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex.

Meyers, his team's No. 1 punter and a top pass receiver, told Bell Tuesday he had signed for a small bonus and $10,000 a season if he makes the team. Villanova immediately declared him ineligible for the Sun Bowl.

Wilt, West Drive Teams To Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain and Los Angeles' Jerry West supplied the spark needed to drive their teams to victory over Detroit and Chicago in National Basketball Association action Wednesday night.

The Lakers downed the Packers 102-98 in the first half of an NBA doubleheader and the Warriors beat the Pistons 117-102 in the finale. Both games at Detroit were the only NBA contests of the day.

The Warriors trailed 65-49 at the half, but Chamberlain broke loose when play resumed and poured in 18 points in the third period while his teammate Paul Arizin lobbed in 11.

Chamberlain collected 55 points and brought his season's total to 1,553 in 1,551 minutes of play—or better than a point a minute.

Costs Force College To Stop Grid Play

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rising costs have forced another small college to quit playing football.

Pepperdine, after 16 years, announced Wednesday it is dropping the sport immediately. It is the second Southern California school in recent weeks to eliminate football, following the lead of the University of San Diego.

College officials said gate receipts this year produced only about $1,000 — and $31,000 was spent on the program.

Name Lemm AFL Coach Of the Year

NEW YORK, (AP) — Wally Lemm of the Houston Oilers was voted coach-of-the-year in the American Football League today by an Associated Press committee of sportswriters and sportscasters in the eight league cities.

After Lemm took over at Houston, the Oilers won nine straight on their way to the Eastern Division title and a Dec. 24 title game with the San Diego Chargers, Western Division winners.

Houston put on a real aerial show with Lemm at the controls and George Blanda throwing to such prime targets as Charlie Hennigan, Billy Cannon and Bill Groman.

For a man who wasn't even in pro football when the 1961 season started, Lemm did quite a job. Disillusioned by his earlier experiences as a defensive coach under Lou Rymkus, Lemm quit last spring to go into the sporting good business at Libertyville, Ill. with an old pal.

When the Oilers lost three, tied one and won only one of their first five games, they put in a hurry call to Libertyville. Lemm responded.

To Iron Out Differences Between NAAU and NCAA

HIGH POINT, N. C. (AP)—Louis J. Fisher, a veteran official of the North Carolina and national AAU, is facing him as the new president of the national Amateur Athletic Union is to iron out differences between his group and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

"We have a desire to get together to try to resolve our differences," said Fisher, 59-year-old dapper prosecuting attorney of the High Point City Court. "I hope they (the NCAA) have a similar desire."

"If we don't get together, everybody is going to get hurt, the athletes and the Olympic program."

Tigers Take Vols 86-61 In Tennessee

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three Big Eight basketball teams will be in action against outsiders tonight following Wednesday night's stand in which the Missouri Tigers won and the Nebraska Cornhuskers were beaten.

Missouri defeated the Tennessee Vols 86-61 at Knoxville, Tenn., on the first leg of a three game trip south.

Wyoming nipped Nebraska 71-70 in a thriller at Laramie, Wyo.

Missouri meets George Tech in Atlanta tonight before completing its swing south with Vanderbilt in Nashville Saturday.

The Colorado Buffaloes (4-2) play Cincinnati in Cincinnati tonight, while the Oklahoma State Cowpokes (5-1) entertain Colorado State in Stillwater.

Veteran Ken Doughty and sophomore Bruce Mills each scored 20 points as Missouri made easy work of Tennessee. It was the Tigers fourth victory against two losses.

The Missouri victory was a costly one for the Tigers, however, as Howard Garrett, the team's top scorer, suffered a knee injury early in the first half and sat out the remainder of the game.

Nebraska, which has a 3-3 record, wiped out 8 points of a 9 point handicap in the last five minutes but couldn't overhaul Wyoming.

Sophomore Bill Vincent was Nebraska's leading scorer with 19 points, one more than teammate Tommy Russell. Curt Jenson of Wyoming blasted the Huskers with 34 points.

Tommy O'Boyle Is Head Grid Coach at Tulane

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Tommy O'Boyle, former head football coach at Springfield (Mo) State College and later assistant coach at Kansas State, Wednesday was named head grid coach at Tulane University.

O'Boyle, an alumnus of Tulane, will succeed Andy Pilney at the New Orleans school. O'Boyle was chief assistant and line coach under Pilney and acted as head coach after Pilney resigned Nov. 26.

Tulane won only two games the past season.

Sharman Has Jets Rolling In New League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Bill Sharman, the former Boston Celtic who jumped back home for a coaching opportunity, has the Los Angeles Jets rolling in the new American Basketball League.

Sharman's Jets made it six in a row Wednesday night, whipping the Washington Tapers 93-89 at Washington and drawing to within 2½ games of the idle Kansas City Steers, the ABL's Western Division leaders.

In a matter of two weeks, the Jets have made up three full games on Kansas City with Dan Swartz and big Bill Speivy in leading roles.

In other games, Chicago scored four points in the last 12 seconds to defeat Cleveland 98-94 at Chicago Stadium, and in San Francisco, the Saints beat the Hawaii Chiefs 103-95.

Fisher said the AAU is attempting to settle the problem and has offered to form a new group, called the Basketball Council of the U.S., composed of all major basketball groups.

This body then would elect the single representative to the international federation.

Five Games In Small Colleges Wednesday Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Small college basketball in Missouri and Kansas featured five games Wednesday night, two of them out of the area.

Southwestern Louisiana defeated Culver-Stockton 72-55 at Lafayette, La., and Christian Brothers out-shot Rockhurst of Kansas City at the free throw line to win 61-48 at Memphis.

In the other games, Maryville State's marksmanship was too much for Pittsburg, Kan., State 88-67, Washington of St. Louis held Abilene Christian to 13 points in the final 17 minutes for a 66-59 victory, and Harris Teachers of St. Louis fast broke Peru, Neb., State into a 71-55 victim.

Villanova Coach Relies On Reserves, Sophomores

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jack Kraft wasn't supposed to have much to work with this season when he started his first year as head basketball coach at Villanova.

Only one starter, hot-shooting Hubie White, returned from last year's team that had a so-so 11-13 record. For the rest, he had to rely on reserves, sophomores and reds.

Lacking height and experience, the Wildcats weren't expected to do too much in the pre-season forecasts.

Today, they rank as one of the biggest surprises in the East, sporting an 8-0 record built on hustle and determination. They've been pressed only once — in Wednesday night's 64-59 victory over St. Francis, (Pa.) in the first half of a doubleheader at Philadelphia—and are making a determined bid for a national ranking.

The victory, pioneered by Wally Jones' 30-point effort, marked the close of Villanova activity until next week's Quaker City invitational.

St. Francis, looking much better than the 2-3 record it took into the game, battled Villanova on even terms through the first half, but the Wildcats outscored the Frankies 17-5 in the first six minutes of the second half and took a 49-37 lead that stood up in the face of a closing St. Francis rally.

White, who had averaged 19 points a game on his jump shot, was held to 8 by the St. Francis zone.

In the nightcap, LaSalle surprised Penn 69-57, knocking the Quakers from the rapidly dwindling ranks of the unbeaten. Penn, 4-0 this season and sporting one of the longest major college unbeaten strings in the nation—12—just didn't have it.

Two of the other unbeaten in action Wednesday night came through on schedule, though Seton Hall had a major scare before surviving. The Hall, playing at home, established a 16-point lead at halftime, but barely managed an 81-79 verdict over fired-up Rider College.

Sophomore Nick Werkman, the nation's ninth-ranking scorer, struck for a layup that gave Seton Hall a 78-77 lead that stood up. He finished with 29 points.

Dayton won its sixth straight without major difficulty, 62-45 over Regis at Dayton.

Providence finished its brief, unhappy foray into the midwest with a 67-53 drubbing at the hands of Xavier. The third-ranked Friars started their trip with a 5-0 record, and left Cincinnati today with a 5-2 mark.

The NIT champion Friars, sporting 6-10 Jim Hadnot and 6-11 John Thompson, were beaten badly on their forte—rebounds. The smaller Musketeers grabbed off 63, Providence only 34. Frank Pinchback led the winners with 19 points and 13 rebounds, while Thompson paced the losers with 16 points.

Press Names P. Hornung Most Valuable

FT. RILEY, Kan. (AP) — "This comes as a great surprise to me because the last couple of months I've been in the Army and have missed two games."

That's what Paul Hornung said about his selection today as the Most Valuable Player in the National Football League by an Associated Press panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

"This makes me feel very good," the Green Bay Packers halfback said. "I realize that playing on the team that is the Western Division champion means a lot."

There are two or three others on the club that could have won the same honor.

The former Notre Dame star made 146 points and won the NFL scoring title for the third year in a row. He missed games with Los Angeles Nov. 19 and Dec. 17.

Hornung will get a six-day leave beginning Dec. 27 — the regular Christmas-New Year's holiday time off the men at Ft. Riley receive. His leave includes Dec. 31, the day the Packers and the New York Giants, Eastern Division winners meet for the NFL championship.

Loan Company Paid Visit by Wild Deer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 125-pound deer burst through the swinging door of a loan company in the city's busy Chestnut Hill section Wednesday, raced across the lobby, and then dashed into a parking lot.
Seconds later the deer bounded back into the lobby. It visited several offices before a janitor managed to slam the door of one.

Metal Trees Could Be Safety Threats
CHICAGO (AP)—Metallic Christmas trees could be deadly, the National Safety Council says. The council urged buyers not to string electric lights on the metallic trees. If so decorated, the council said, the trees could carry death-dealing voltage.

Paris Casino Show Fine for Outsiders

PARIS (AP)—The show at the Casino de Paris Wednesday night was terrific—for the guys outside. A fire broke out in the rigging backstage and the girls fled to the street in their scanty stage attire. Firemen reported the flames under control 90 minutes later.

The audience filed out with a minimum of confusion.

OUT OUR WAY

BY J. R. WILLIAMS

PFC Maness Takes Part in Exercises

Army PFC William J. Maness, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell M. Maness, Clarksburg, recently participated in Exercise Brandywine, a field training exercise involving some 26,000 troops in Germany.

During the maneuver "friendly" forces, backed by atomic-capable and conventional artillery, engaged "aggressor" forces.

Maness, a truck driver in the 42d Artillery's 5th Missile Battalion which is regularly located in Aschaffenburg, entered the Army in July 1960, received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and arrived overseas last Feb.

The 24-year-old soldier is a 1955 graduate of Clarksburg High School and was employed by Missouri-Pacific Railroad Co., St. Louis, before entering the Army.

To Replace Leo Fischer

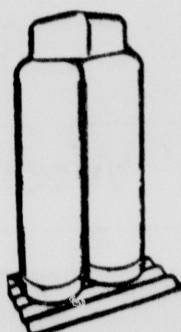

JEFFERSON CITY AP)—Fred L. Henley, 50, aruthersville lawyer and former circuit judge, is going to be the new chairman of the Highway Commission.

Gov. John M. Dalton chose him Wednesday to succeed Leo A. Fisher of St. Louis, who resigned to make way for Dalton's appointee.

Henley served five years as circuit judge in the old 38th District of southeastern Missouri, resigning in 1960 to return to private law practice.

He has been active in Bar Association and local civic affairs and formerly was city attorney. He is married to the former Bernice Chilton, daughter of O. W. Chilton, publisher of the Caruthersville Democrat - Argus. They have three daughters and a son.

AN INVITATION AND A CHALLENGE

COMPARE THE LARK WITH THIS ONE:

BUICK SPECIAL?

Why pay a premium for the Buick Special when a Lark is bigger in so many ways—in rear legroom (5" more), in braking power (146 or 172 sq. in. vs. 123 sq. in.), in optional available top horsepower (225 vs. 185), in standard wheel size (15" vs. 13"). Just a sample of the many big ways Lark's a better buy. (Lark prices start $369 lower.)

Apprehensive Time for TV As Year Ends

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—'Tis the season to be jolly for us average citizens, but it is a time of apprehension for the thousands who make their living in television. Each year at this holiday period, TV is engaged in life-or-death decisions about current programs while diving headlong into big plans for next season.

Possibly the most predictable news emanating from the creative ateliers of New York and Hollywood concerns a whole slew of new programs on the big new theme now in planning stages.

There's "Breakdown," about a psychiatrist. There's "Dr. Pygmalion," about a plastic surgeon. There is "Come A-Runnin'" concerning a small town general practitioner. There is "Diary of a Nurse," which is self-explanatory. And there is still another, untitled, about students at medical college.

If "Dr. Kildare," "Ben Casey," "The Donna Reed Show," "Hennessey" and "Gunsmoke" (don't forget Doc!) survive for another season, next year's crop of kiddie viewers will be practicing taking temperatures and pulses instead of fast draws.

To make room for the new shows, some of this season's misses and near-misses are going to have to go. And the future of many hang in the balance. ABC is rumored to be even thinking of giving up "The Untouchables," and its "Maverick" is probably in its final, faltering months.

After a brief outing, Sonny Fox's "On Your Mark" for children on Saturday morning quietly went down the ABC drain after last week's show. It was heralded, when it premiered, as ABC's response to widespread demands for better TV programs for youngsters. The time has been turned back to local stations—and in my town, the ABC station is using it for reruns of ancient "Our Gang" silent movies.

NBC's "Today" show is in a state of flux. Edwin Newman, after a few months as its newscaster, will soon pull out of the show. It is expected that host John Chancellor will take over the job. And the show producers are on another one of their periodic hunts for a girl to take the place of Robin Bain. It's important to have a pretty girl on the show who can chatter and—more essential—read those commercials which come more suitably from female lips.

The show business newspaper "Variety" reports that the cosmetic sponsors of the Dec. 13 Bob Hope special are irked at their highly paid star. It seems that the following day, Bob's picture turned up in newspaper ads endorsing a rival brand of perfume.

Joe Kennedy Given Blessings of Pope

Orders Station To Present Its Side In Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communications Commission ruled Wednesday that radio station KWK in St. Louis must present its side before an FCC examiner can make an initial decision in a revocation of license case.

At hearing in St. Louis, the examiner heard the government's case. KWK asked the Commission to empower the examiner to make an initial decision on the basis of the Commission counsel's presentation. If the examiner's decision recommended no revocation, then KWK would not have to present its case.

The commission Wednesday turned down KWK's request saying it felt that it would be in the public interest for KWK to present its case before the examiner made his initial decision. The Commission itself makes the final determination cases, after the recommendation by the examiner.

The commission also rejected a KWK request that its case be heard in Washington rather than in St. Louis.

Unload Helicopters, Troops in Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The converted U.S. aircraft carrier Core left South Viet Nam Wednesday after unloading about 40 combat helicopters and 400 U.S. support troops and pilots.

The H21 helicopters and their ground and air crews are the first major contribution under the new program of increased U.S. military aid to the South Viet Nam government's battle against the Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

Fur Firm Move May Cost It Huge Contract

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Fouke Fur Co. will ignore the threatened cancellation of its federal fur processing contract and move to Greenville, S.C. after Jan. 5.

John T. Fouke, president of the company, said the U.S. Interior Dept. had been informed of the firm's intention to go ahead with the shift. He claims the firm would be bankrupt within five years if it remained in St. Louis, because profits have not kept pace with rising costs in recent years.

The Interior Department warned Nov. 29, that it would cancel the company's $1,600,000 annual seal skin processing contract, if the firm moved. The department said Fouke did not consult the government before orig-

British Ponder Switching To a New System of Money

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK — The British are talking of making their money more easily understood. The idea would be to join a major portion of the world in figuring money on the decimal system.

Americans, who have plenty of trouble just understanding their own—try to figure what something would cost in a 1939 dollar!—will be all for anything that takes some of the mystery out of the British pound, shilling and pence.

And if the British adopt something like our dollar-equals-100 cents system, it would be a major step, but only one, in the long process of getting universal standards for a world where each nation increasingly, and often in spite of itself, finds it has to live with and do business with a lot of others.

There will be a lot of things still all mixed up. And a lot of things that Americans don't figure by the decimal system either.

The inch, yard, mile and acre may make sense to you. It doesn't to a host of others who talk in terms of centimeters, meters, kilometers, hectares.

You may measure in ounces, pounds and tons—which do you mean, long or short ton? A lot of other people don't know what that means. They figure in grams and kilograms. And how about pints, quarts, gallons, barrels and hogheads? What does that mean in liters? Or, if you're an oil producer do you report output in barrels or tons—and, again, what kind of tons?

The British consideration of switching its currency to a decimal system like the American dollar and penny, or the French franc and centime, is motivated by several factors.

For one, not too many years ago the pound sterling was as much the international language of finance as French was the language of diplomacy. Now many nations have broken away from the pound sterling and turned to a decimal currency—large portions of the British Commonwealth have.

Also the U.S. dollar in many sections of the globe has succeeded the pound as the currency on which international exchange is reckoned.

For another thing, the British are coveting the prosperity which their neighbors on the European Continent have achieved by their Common Market. And the British would like to share it. To join in close economic union with nations using the decimal system, it would be handy if the British figured that way, too.

International agencies are working hard to get wider adoption of universal standards. Each year they make progress. They have a long way yet to go.

All of the wonderful gadgets we ship to all parts of the world would work better if replacement parts were all to the same tolerance, in the same language of measurement. And these gadgets could hook up better to other gadgets already in place if all used the same language of measurement.

Heston Gets Pace Change In New Film

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Charlton Heston said he wanted a change of pace from religious epics, and he's getting it.

In his current film he gets into a shower with Italian beauty Elsa Martinelli.

Heston hastily adds: "It's a large shower." And, fleeing Nazi pursuers in "The Pigeon That Took Rome," he is fully clothed.

Heston is getting as far from Ben-Hur and El Cid as he can. He made it up to World War II, which is when "The Pigeon etc." takes place. He still hasn't escaped the religious overtures; I found him in a priest's cassock. "Strictly a disguise," explained Heston, who plays a hard-hearted infantry officer on an undercover mission. "And not a very good disguise at that. Orson Welles saw me in Rome and said I was the most Lutheran-looking priest he'd ever seen. He predicted I would set the church back 2,000 years."

If Heston seems exuberant these days, it is because the current film is not only modern but carries a 12-week schedule—"On my other pictures that would be long enough to get done with the wardrobe fittings."

No other actor has starred in such lengthy and costly films. Here is his track record:

"The 10 Commandments"—3 months—$10.5 million.
"Ben-Hur"—10 months — $14.5

Horace Mann 4-H Has Christmas Party

The Horace Mann Go-Getters met Monday evening for their Christmas party at the Horace Mann School. There were 30 members present.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 8 at the Horace Mann School. This will be a pot luck supper for all 4-H members and their families.

million.

"El Cid"—7½ months—$8 million.

Why was he chosen for these epics?

"I have a theory about that," he said. "It's a matter of faces. Some actors' faces fit certain eras. Take Bill Holden. Bill has made only two Westerns, neither of them very successful. His is strictly a 20th-century American face; there's none better."

"Henry Fonda is a great early American face. He is one of the few actors who has made a number of films of the pre-1860 era — 'Drums Along the Mohawk,' 'Young Mr. Lincoln,' 'The Farmer Takes a Wife,' etc."

And where does the Heston face fit?

"Apparently somewhere before Christ," he said grimly.

POP-UP TRAFFIC CONTROL—Internally illuminated traffic markers that appear out of and disappear into the pavement are a new aid to traffic control. Flexible rubber markers, able to withstand tire impacts up to 60 miles an hour, make it possible to change traffic flow patterns to suit needs, as shown in photographs above. Called "Movatron," the system can be operated automatically or with the flick of a button. Time, labor and danger involved in manually erected markers are eliminated, also overhead lane signs.

Plan Ahead for Parties And You'll Have Fun

By MARY PIPER

When you're entertaining this season, you can sit back and relax—not if you let George do it, but if you do it yourself, ahead of time.

Throwing a party should be a pleasure and it's always a pleasure when you include yourself. It's a chance for you to star as a hostess.

First, plan the meal, the drinks and your time early in the week. Then set aside the morning of the party for getting the meal ready.

If you have a tried-and-true specialty, you'll feel easier, more relaxed if you serve it as the piece de resistance.

And if you serve buffet style, you can enjoy your guests and the party without a moment's fuss.

A party refreshment that doesn't keep you or your husband jumping up to freshen flagging drinks is punch. It's cheap to serve, tasty and starts a party off in a gay, holiday spirit.

Here's an easy, yummy, sparkling punch. Combine one can of pineapple chunks, drained, with four bottles of a light, dry wine, preferably Moselle wine. Let the punch stand in the refrigerator for several hours so that the flavor of the pineapple permeates the wine. When you're ready to serve it, add two bottles of an expensive champagne. German Sekt does very well for this.

You can keep the punch cool with plain or colored ice cubes. It should serve up to 20 people.

If you place your punch bowl on a table apart from the buffet table, guests can serve themselves easily without disturbing the setting for the main meal.

Or you can serve instead a punch-type dessert in the same way. A light but luscious holiday dessert is a fruited float—a creamy rich cousin to an eggnog. It's made by beating vanilla ice cream into frozen or fresh orange juice, then adding rum. This is then poured over frozen or fresh mixed fruit and topped with a scoop of ice cream.

FRUIT FLOAT
1 can 6 ounces) frozen concentrated orange juice, or fresh orange juice
2 cups cold water
1 pint vanilla ice cream
1/2 cup rum
1 package 12 ounces) frozen mixed fruit, thawed and drained, or fresh fruit, diced
4 maraschino cherries

Mix concentrated orange juice and water, or use fresh juice. Gradually pour over half of the ice cream in a bowl, beating until thoroughly blended. Add the rum and mix well. Spoon the mixed fruit into 4 glasses 12 ounces each). Pour in the orange juice mixture. Top with a scoop of ice cream. Garnish with a maraschino cherry. Makes four servings.

Now for some suggestions for holiday dishes that can be prepared in the morning and reheated just before serving.

CANADIAN BACON WITH CRANBERRIES

4 medium-size sweet potatoes, boiled and sliced, or 1 No. 2 1/2 can sweet potatoes, sliced
1 pound raw cranberries plus 1 cup honey, or one jar whole cranberry sauce plus 1/2 cup honey
1 cup allspice
salt and pepper
1/2 cup chicken broth
1 pound Canadian bacon, cut in thick slices

Arrange the sweet potatoes on the bottom of a medium-size casserole which has a lid. Add the raw cranberries and larger amount of honey or whole cranberry sauce with smaller amount of honey. Sprinkle with the allspice, add chicken broth and salt and pepper. Arrange the slices of Canadian bacon on top. Cover and bake in a medium oven 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes. Makes four servings.

CREAMED CHICKEN WITH CRANBERRY RICE

1 cup uncooked rice, well washed, or 1 regular-size box precooked rice
2 cups cranberry juice
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk or chicken broth
salt and pepper
2 cups diced cooked or canned chicken, duck or turkey
2 tablespoons slivered almonds, toasted

Put the rice in a heavy pan and add cranberry juice. Bring to a boil. Cover and cook over low heat 14 minutes. Remove from flame, remove lid and fluff with a fork. Cook pre-cooked rice according to directions on the box. Make a sauce by melting the butter, stirring in the flour until well blended, adding the milk slowly and then the seasoning. Stir until smooth and thick. Put the cranberry rice in a low buttered casserole. Add the diced chicken or duck to the sauce and pour over the rice. Sprinkle the top with slivered almonds. Bake in a medium oven 350 degrees F. for about 20 minutes, or until flavors are blended. Makes four servings.

Dickey Is In Naval Recruit Training

William E. Dickey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Dickey of 1900 South Montgomery, Sedalia, is undergoing nine weeks of recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Military etiquette, drill, physical fitness, swimming and survival, first aid, shipboard safety precautions and security duty will be included in the training program.

Through the training, experienced counselors will help determine which of the Navy's 67 career fields each man is best suited for.

Turkey, Ham Headliners At Food Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Turkey and ham maintain their traditional Christmas headline role this week, although the former seems to have a big advantage in the eyes of bargain hunters.

Turkey prices are the lowest in 20 years, thanks to a whopping crop of 107 million gobblers, up 26 per cent over last year. In addition, government experts figure on Jan. 1 cold storage stocks of 300 million pounds of turkey, about twice as much as a year earlier.

Prices run 8 to 14 cents a pound less than a year ago in New York area supermarkets and groceries. For the larger birds, the gap is as much as 18 cents a pound below 1959 levels.

Pork supplies over-all are a bit higher than a year ago currently, but smoked and canned ham prices are up 4 cents a pound over year-ago levels in the New York area. Pork chops at 79 cents a pound are down 20 cents from 1960, up 10 cents from 1959.

Regional favorites offer some variety to menu selectors, too. Baking chickens and pork loin roast are offered in the Southeast, beef steak, pork chops and lamb chops in the Midwest and a variety of other poultry items—geese, duck and capons—in the Northeast. Roast goose, at 75 cents a pound, is up 6 cents from a year ago and compares with 17 cents a pound in 1933.

Vegetable bins are brimming over, in most markets, with celery, squash, potatoes, cauliflower, cabbage, sweet potatoes, carrots, onions, radishes, tomatoes, lettuce and brussels sprouts. Potatoes are especially low priced.

Shoppers will find piles of avocados, oranges, grapefruit, pears, apples, tangerines, bananas and grapes at bargain rates. Good buys in some sections include kumquats, limes, coconuts, cranberries, emperor grapes, tangelos and lemons.

Nuts are in abundant supply.

Christmas on High 3

Angels Prepare God's Way

Gabriel reassured her: "Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favor with God."

EDITOR'S NOTE: The message went fourth from the Heavens—and on earth, it was tidings of joy. This is the third of four articles on the Christmas story with its setting in the divine realm, based on Scriptural allusions.

By GEORGE CORNELL
AP Religious Writer

Across the mystic span, the messengers sped. Through the tenuous veil between the immortal and the mortal, they passed. Out of the heavens, they traveled to earth.

They bore a message to man. "The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together."

Into the ears of prophets and seers, the divine emissaries whispered the amazing intelligence. Through the secret channels of dreams, they poured the gracious report.

It was enigmatic and elusive to the human mind. "And He will lift up an ensign to the nations from afar. . . . And a highway shall be there and a way. . . . The redeemed shall walk there. . . . the ransomed of the Lord."

Through the discerning, heaven-inspired spirits of the earth, through Isaiah, Joel, Malachi, Micah, Amos, Zechariah, Daniel, Jeremiah and others, the visiting, harbingers conveyed the Deity's intent.

"Behold, thy King cometh unto thee: He is just and having salvation; lowly and riding upon an ass. . . . His dominion shall be from the sea even to sea, from the river even unto the ends of the earth."

Centuries of Preparation

The preparation went on over centuries of terrestrial time.

The help decreed for man diffused to all disposed to respond to it, in the flesh or previously gone from it.

"The Lord whom ye seek shall come suddenly to the temple. . . . And He shall sit as a Refiner and Purifier. . . . He shall be as an hiding place from the wind, a covert from the tempest."

To the Archangel Michael, of the four chief princes of the Creator's imperial regime, and to the head of the cherubim, Gabriel, went commanding duties in the earthly expedition.

They led an angel army in disseminating the story.

"Let all the nations be gathered together and let the people be assembled. . . . And a little child shall lead them. . . . His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor. . . . the Mighty God. . . . the Everlasting. . . . Price of Peace."

It was Gabriel, the intercessor who oversees resistance to the wills of Lucifer's dominions and powers of the lower air, that a special task was given in the new move for mankind.

He was to enlist direct participation of several members of its own genus, including a young Jewish maiden of Galilee.

Expectations Loosed

But before that was done, enhanced desires and expectation had to be let loose among the somnolent populace. Wilted hopes had to be lifted.

To man, engulfed in materialism, the higher realities had receded from his ken, although they interpenetrated his earthly framework, fashioned and sustaining it.

But man's consciousness had become ravaged by misuse. He could not make out the spiritual world that co-existed with the physical, all part of an inter-related community.

To him, the universe was split by distance, and life shattered by time. He considered God's province remote and far away, and felt that events and experiences lasted only so long as embodied in their material setting.

Only material effect registered with him. It was his scope and his standard. Without it, fact escaped him. His insights were marred; his impulses shrunk. He could not see that the past could be preserved and perpetuated, even as its material manifestations dissolved.

In his warped view, it was a fragmented, barebones existence, shut in by length, breadth and thickness, by touch, taste and smell. It was a dying chain of successive occurrences, rather than a consecutive, inter-connected unity.

Healing News Brought

But to short-sighted humanity, the vitalizing spirits brought God's healing news. Although the highest formative forces, the "things that are not shaken," remained changeless, the lower orders were subject to renewal.

"He shall feed the flock like a shepherd. He shall gather the lambs with His arms and carry them in His bosom and shall gently lead."

The auguries were couched in imagery and intimations, for the full import could not be communicated at once to man's limited concepts.

"Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places plain."

Gradually, step by step, the word was spread, the people readied, though many scorned and killed the prophets that relayed the information. Yet others listened, wondered and hoped.

"But thou Bethlehem, though thou be little. . . yet out of thee shall He come forth. . . that is to be Ruler. . . whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting."

Other hints also were dispersed, many of them difficult for man to adjust to his notions of success.

"He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief. . . . He was wounded for. . . transgressions.

In all their afflictions, He was afflicted, and the angel of His presence saved them; in His love and in His pity, He redeemed them."

The tenderly shaped plan had a directness and profound simplicity that heaped unstinted love and acceptance on earthly beings. "Behold a virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel."

Gabriel's Announcement

It was to her that Gabriel made the announcement, as well as to her kinsman, Zacharias, whose wife was to bear another son, John the Baptist, to serve as a forerunner to God's manifestation.

Gently Gabriel approached the innocent girl of Nazareth as she knelt by a well. "Hail, thou that art highly favored. The Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women."

She was understandably startled and disturbed, and he reassured her. "Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favour with God. And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb and bring forth a Son, and shall call His name Jesus."

The angel paused, discerning her qualms, soothing her spirit from the bounty of his own. "He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Highest. . . . Of His kingdom there shall be no end."

The girl, uncovering her face, looked up imploringly. "How shall this be, seeing I know not man?"

Gabriel explained softly. "The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee. Therefore, the Child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God."

It seemed a normal sort of transmutation to Gabriel, accustomed to full spiritual correspondence and interchange. What was unusual was the entry of God into man, bodily. He realized that the phenomenon was strange to individually isolated human beings.

"With God," he said, "nothing shall be impossible."

The girl bowed her head. "Behold the handmaid of the Lord. Be it unto me according to thy word."

Gabriel also had to conciliate her betrothed husband, Joseph, to keep him from repudiating the new life stirring in her. But once he understood, he accepted. And that's all that is asked.

MAGIC PROCESS
Makes Bread Like Cake!

The Wonder Bakers have it . . . a bread that looks like cake . . . tender, creamy-smooth angel food cake! And it's got a heavenly taste you'll love.

The secret's in the magic way it's made. Wonder "Soft Whipped" Bread is made from a batter, not from a dough. A special process mixes and blends this finely measured batter, gently whips it smooth. The result: Wonder "Soft Whipped" Bread gives you perfect texture in every slice—no holes; no streaks! No holes mean no jelly, jam and catsup drips. No streaks mean every bite is smooth, tender and so digestible.

Get a loaf. Try one slice. One bite will tell you: Wonder "Soft Whipped" is the best bread you've ever eaten.

Use Pecans in Cooking

The pecan industry in the United States reports a record crop of pecans and they are at their peak sales now.

You will find them in the stores in attractive packages and at a good price.

How about a pecan pie?

3 eggs
¾ cup honey
¼ tablespoon butter

1 cup pecans, whole or broken
Beat eggs until frothy. Add honey and melted butter. Mix well, put in pie shell which has been baked in a very hot oven and bake in moderate oven about 35 minutes.

You will be the favorite cook in the neighborhood.

Selecting a Rug or Carpet?

Your first considerations as you shop for your new carpet are color and design. For no matter how fine the quality may be, a carpet is not for you if it doesn't fit your needs on both these points.

You may want the carpet for one of several design reasons. It may be background for your furniture. Or, it may be an accent or even the focal point, or center of interest, in your room. Decide first which purpose you wish to fill. Your choice of color, design, and size will depend on this decision.

If your choice is a carpet which will be a background for your room you will be looking for a subdued color. You may want a different tone (usually darker) of your wall color. If you have other strong color or pattern in your room, a subdued background color should be your choice.

On the other hand, yours may be a room with soft colors and little pattern. In this case your rug may be an intense, or strong color, especially if the rug covers only a small area. If you have no other "center of interest" you may want a rug which will take this position. This could be one with intense color, bold pattern or both.

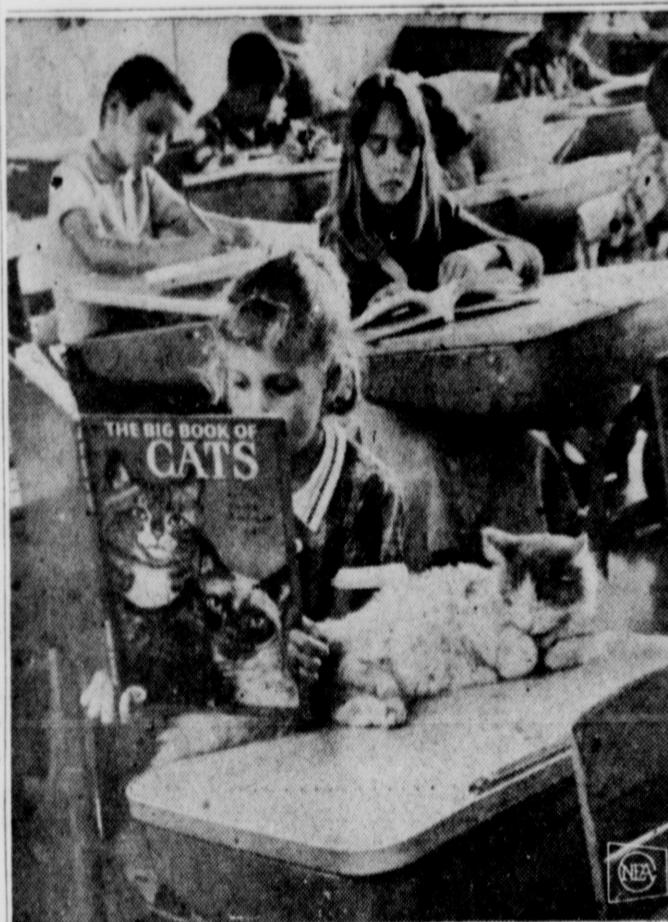

A carpet of light or medium tone or value helps to make a room seem airy and light. Light and medium carpet tones reflect more light and absorb less than dark tones. Also you can read more comfortably in a room with light or medium tones on the floor. This is because the floor frames the page you are reading and you see both at the same time. Your eyes are more comfortable when there is less contrast between the color value of the floor and the printed page.

You probably will select a bold pattern only when your rug is to be used as your room's center of interest.

aren't supporting no bums in this house, country boy. Out you go and she threw me out into the street.

"I had nothing to wear but my space suit and helmet. A policeman stopped me and said, 'What are you—some kind of a nut or something? I've got a good mind to toss you into the cooler.' Some children jeered at me.

"This is a frightening place. As soon as it is dark, I will board my space ship and return to Mars."

When the chastened operative ZY125X reported in person his full tale of horror to his superiors on Mars, they held a council and gravely decided it might be better to let the earth people grow up for another thousand years or so before considering interplanetary relations.

Martian Finds Earth Folks Affable at Christmas Time

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—One year a space ship from Mars arrived here secretly.

It was manned by a single Martian, operative ZY125X, whose assignment was to find whether the earth was advanced enough for Mars to consider opening interplanetary relations.

Here is his first report, sent via mental radio, to his command post on Mars:

"Trip uneventful and according to plan. After hiding space ship, I ventured into city. Found inhabitants unbelievably friendly and hospitable. Many were interested in my strange garb.

"One man, noting my helmet, asked: 'What are you advertising, Bud?' When I told him 'Nothing,' he replied, 'I am a department store manager, and our Santa Claus is sick. How would you like to take his place?'

"I consented. It seems Santa Claus is a kind of god, and the earth people worship him most at Christmas. I have enjoyed playing this role of god. Little children come sit on my lap and tell me what they want, and I laugh out loud and answer, 'Okay. Ho! Ho! Ho!'

"The earth people are quite cultured. Nobody works. All they do all day is eat and tell each other jokes and exchange presents in beautifully colored packages which they get at the department store merely by signing their name.

"I met a pretty salesgirl here named Josephine. When I confided to her I was from Mars, she said: 'I kinda thought you had a Midwest look—judging from your haircut. My mother and I have an extra room in our apartment. Why don't you move in with us?' I did. More later."

Operative ZY125X sent his second message to Mars on Christmas evening. It read:

"A wonderful day. I gave Josephine and her mother a couple of watches I had picked up in the store, and they gave me some neckties which look like rainbows.

"In the afternoon I wandered into one of the local temples—they are called bars. A friendly earth man said, 'Pal, have a couple on me.' I had two drinks of their ambrosia. It made me feel strange and big. I went home. Josephine said, 'Well, country boy, I do believe you're loaded.' She sat me on a sofa and pressed her lips to mine. 'That makes me feel all tingly,' I told her. She said, 'It could be love, country boy.'"

Immediately this message was sent to operative ZY125X by his Mars command post: "Satisfied your mission accomplished. Return at once."

And back flashed this reply:

"Not me. I like it here."

On Jan. 2nd operative ZY125X sent his last message to Mars:

"Earth has suddenly gone crazy. No one smiles. Everyone scowls. They hurry, hurry, hurry as if demented. They bump into each other rudely. The department store manager took away my Santa Claus suit, and told me, 'Beat it, kid.'"

"Josephine asked me for some rent money. I said, 'You mean that green paper and those jingly pieces of metal? I gave them to one of the priests in a temple for some of that nice ambrosia.' And Josephine said, 'Mama and I
